The screenshot displays the mobile interface of The New York Times. At the top, a navigation bar includes 'VIDEO', 'CONFERENCE', 'THE UPSHOT', and 'SUBSCRIBE'. The main headline reads 'The New York Times' in a large, black, serif font. Below this, the article title is 'Mark Zuckerberg: Cuba "something that we might consider"', accompanied by a photo of Mark Zuckerberg smiling. The article text states: 'Facebook Chief Executive Mark Zuckerberg visits the Summit of the Americas and is mum about plans to spread social network into changing Cuba. Rough Cut (no reporter narration)'. The author is listed as 'ELLEN BARRY' with the date '11 APR 2015'. On the left, a dark sidebar menu lists categories: BUSINESS, TECHNOLOGY, POLITICS, WORLD, SPORTS, OPINION, HEALTH, and ADD SECTIONS, each with a toggle switch. At the bottom left, it shows 'New York, NY' with a weather icon and '59°F warmer with sun, some clouds'. On the right, a 'TOP' section lists other articles, including 'The Mc the Wh' by ELLEN BARRY and 'Republ Woos E Christi' by SHERYL G. The bottom of the screen features a 'RIGHT NOW' section with a carousel of images, including one of Barack Obama.
