

*My
teacher!*

- This year I entered the university, which is located in St. Petersburg. One of the subjects that is studied there is English.
- Our group was given a teacher, who from the very first minutes ignited in us the desire to learn English.

- A field of vibrant pink cosmos flowers with yellow centers, set against a soft, blurred background of more flowers. A large, semi-transparent white circle is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing a bulleted text block.
- This beautiful teacher's name is Elena Eduardovna. I am very pleased with the way she presents us with the topics of the lesson.

- Everything happens In a very sincere and calm atmosphere. But despite her kindness, she doesn't let us skip classes or do our homework. Everything is very strict here.

- A close-up photograph of a bouquet of flowers. The bouquet features several large, vibrant pink roses in various stages of bloom, interspersed with smaller, delicate pink carnations and clusters of tiny white baby's breath flowers. Green foliage and stems are visible throughout the arrangement. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light blue. A large, semi-transparent white circle is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing text.
- The lessons are very interesting. Everything is easy to remember. Much of what I could not understand before, Elena Eduardovna explained easily and simply.

- Next semester, I would like to add hours of English to our class. This wish is due to the fact that we did not have enough communication with the teacher. So that we have lessons at least twice a week. Since we have a clear breakthrough in the knowledge of the English language.

- Elena Eduardovna does almost impossible things for us. She managed to get us to succeed in one couple of days a week. And this is even in the context of a pandemic, in the context of distance learning! And if the gap between the pairs decreases, the results will be even better. Because when there's a big gap, it's very relaxing.

- I would also like to learn more and more about the pronunciation of English words. And I would especially like to practice on tenses in English. This is the most important task for me at the moment, which I hope to achieve in the next semester.

- Now I hope that with this beautiful teacher, we will finally speak English almost like our native language. For which I am very grateful to her and i wish her further success and happiness.

- Thanks for your attention!
