

is a person, usually a woman, who has been trained to advise pregnant women and to help them when they are giving birth.

It is -----

a midwife

a general
practitioner

a matron

a psychiatrist

is a person who treats illness and physical problems by moving and pressing muscles and bones

It is _____

a matron

a pathologist

an osteopath

a specialist

is a person who is trained to treat patients by giving them exercise or massage, often to help them walk again after an accident or operation

It is _____

a general practitioner

a chiropodist

an osteopath

a physiotherapist

is a doctor whose job is to perform operations

It is -----

a chiropodist

an optician

a surgeon

a chiropractor

is a person who has been injured or killed in an accident, a fire or a war

It is _____

a casualty

a midwife

a matron

a psychiatrist

is a person who tests people's eyesight and provides glasses and contact lenses

It is _____

a pathologist

a general
practitioner

a matron

an optician

is a doctor who examines a dead body to find out how the person died

It is _____

a pathologist

a paediatrician

a pharmacist

a physiotherapist

is a doctor who treats people suffering from mental illnesses

It is _____

a specialist

a psychiatrist

an osteopath

a physiotherapist

is a person who is trained to treat and care for people's feet

It is -----

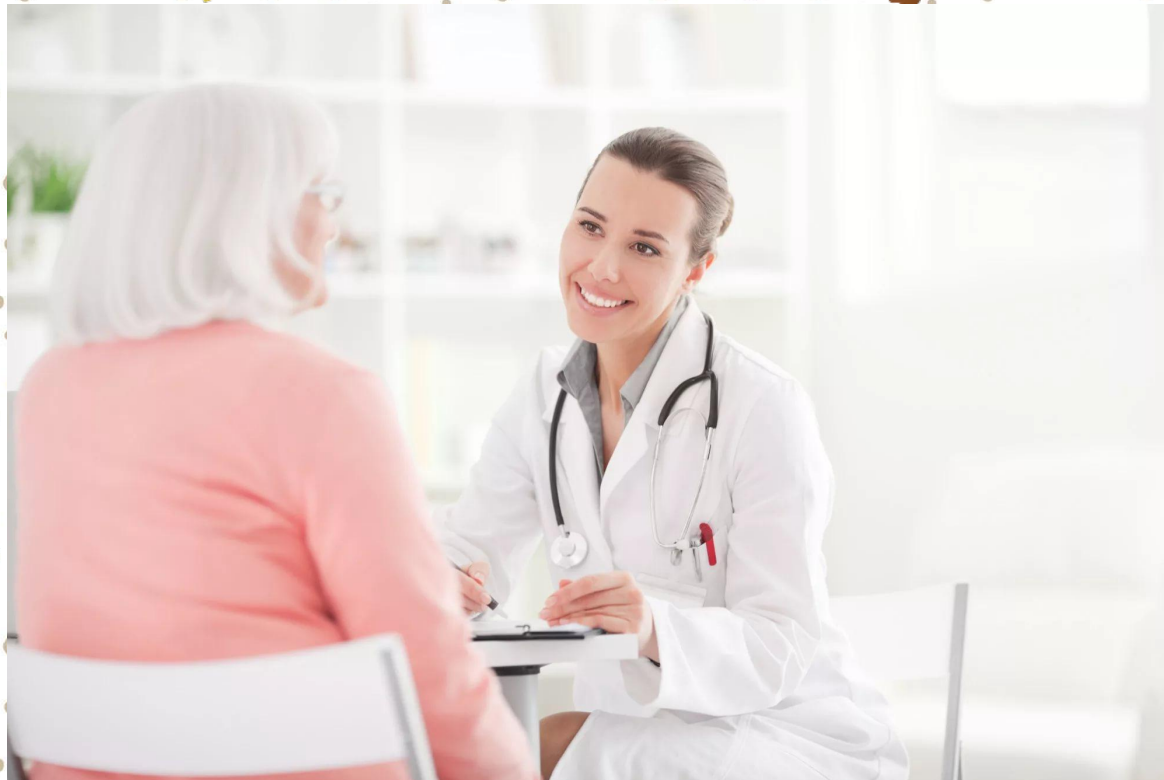

a chiropodist

an optician

an osteopath

a physiotherapist

is a doctor trained in general medicine who treats people in a certain local area for all kinds of illnesses. He or she is usually the first doctor people go to when they are ill

It is _____

a consultant

a pharmacist

a specialist

a general practitioner

is a doctor who specializes in one area of medical treatment, e.g. an eye

It is _____

a general
practitioner

a specialist

a consultant

a pharmacist

is a person who is employed by the medical and social services to help people who are old or ill with their cleaning, cooking, shopping, ect.

It is _____

a home help

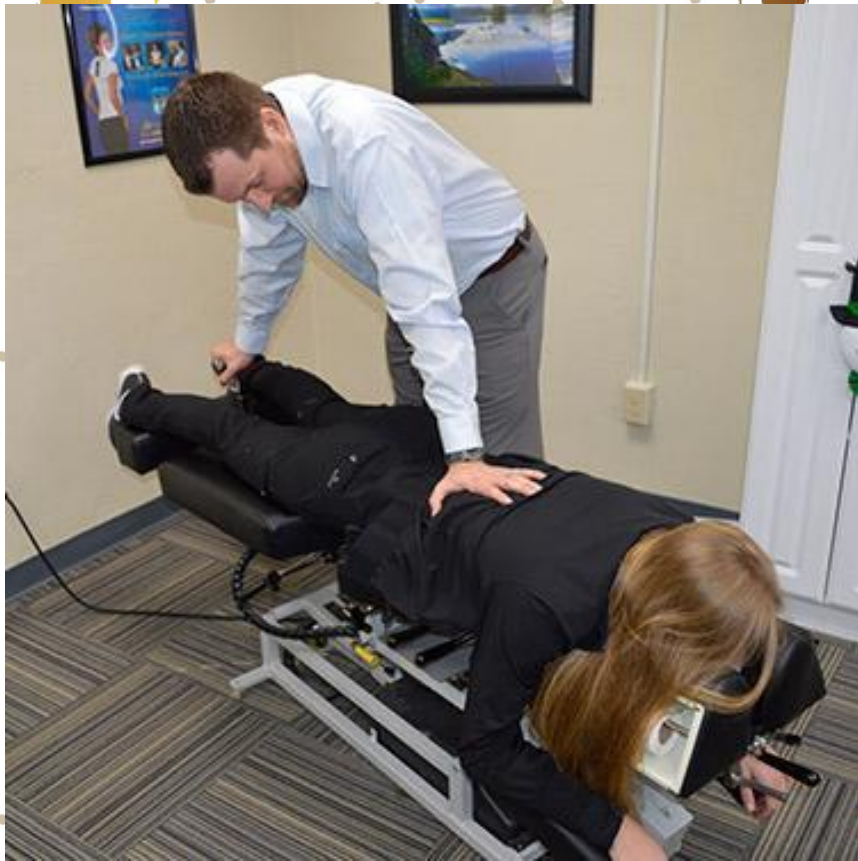

a pharmacist

a matron

a consultant

is a person who treats diseases by feeling and pressing the bones, especially those of the back and neck

It is _____

a chiropractor

a chiropodist

an optician

an osteopath

is a person who is qualified to prepare and sell medicines

It is _____

an out-patient

a consultant

a matron

a pharmacist

is the woman in charge of the nurses in a hospital.
Nowdays she is officially called a senior nursing officer

It is _____

an out-patient

a consultant

a matron

a nurse

is a high-ranking and very experienced hospital doctor who gives specialist advice in one particular area of medicine

It is _____

a consultant

an out-patient

a pharmacist

a nurse

is a person who has to visit a hospital regularly for treatment while still living at home

It is _____

a home help

an out-patient

a matron

a consultant

is a person who looks after patients in hospital

It is -----

a consultant

an out-patient

a pharmacist

a nurse