Ex. 4. p. 91

In which situations can you use the rest of idioms/sayings?

Make a sentence for each. Write down in your workbooks.

Look at the example.

The situation is a political hot potato. I have written a novel, but journalism is my bread and butter. I've finished my exams, and now I'm as cool as a cucumber. I've finished the crossword. It was as easy as pie. My youngest nephew is always full of beans. Eat healthily! Remember — an apple a day keeps the doctor away! You must choose between the car and the overseas holiday. You can't have your cake and eat it too! If you're not careful about what you say to your friend, you'll be eating your words. He's wealthy because he has a finger in every pie — importing, exporting, a local business, online sales ...
