

ASU·LG-11

Family in Germany

Anna Voevodina & Alina Sukmanova

IMPORTANCE OF FAMILY

STRUCTURE OF THE FAMILY

- The nuclear family is the most common type of family in Germany

5.5

married couples

Mio.

843,

000

unmarried couples

7, 000

same-sex couples

1.6 Mio.

single parents

53%

1 child

36%

2 children

9%

3 children

STATE SUPPORT

- child allowance;
- parental benefits;
- tax breaks;
- surcharges for pregnant women;
- low-income families support

Marriage in Germany

"Education comes first, marriage follows later"

the average maternal age - 30 years old the average age of first-time fathers - 35 years old

WHERE DOES FAMILY

LIVE?

A single-family house

"Einfamilienhaus"

A semi-detached house

"Doppelhaus"

DIVORCE

1 divorce per 3 marriages

Spouses need to live separately from 1 up to 3 years (the so-called Trennungsjahr) and pay at least 2000 euros (as minimal charge) to divorce

thank you