

what inspires me

by natalia agapova

usually inspiration comes unexpectedly, but there are characters that help me move on Naruto is a character who really help me. In difficult moments, I think, «Naruto did not give up, went to his goal, I will also try to the end.» Naruto goes forward, believes in the future and his friends

«If giving up hope of saving a friend means getting smarter, then I'd rather be a fool forever»

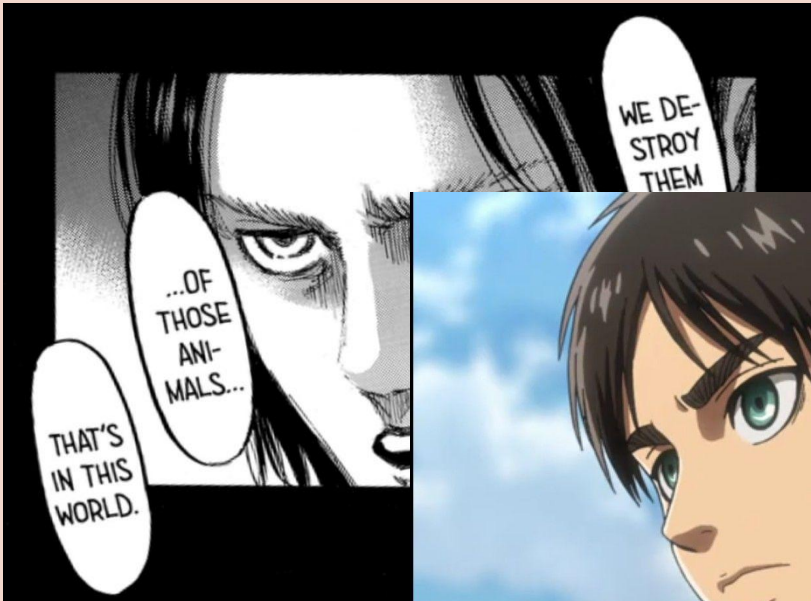

Naruto is a serious anime with a deep emotional subtext

«I'd rather regret what I did than what I couldn't do when I had the chance»

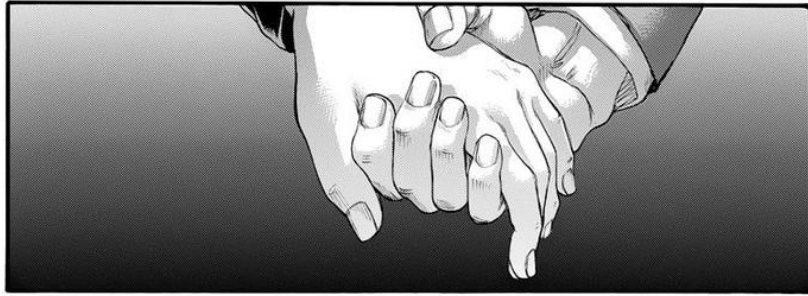

Another character that inspires me is Eren Yeager from «Attack on Titan»

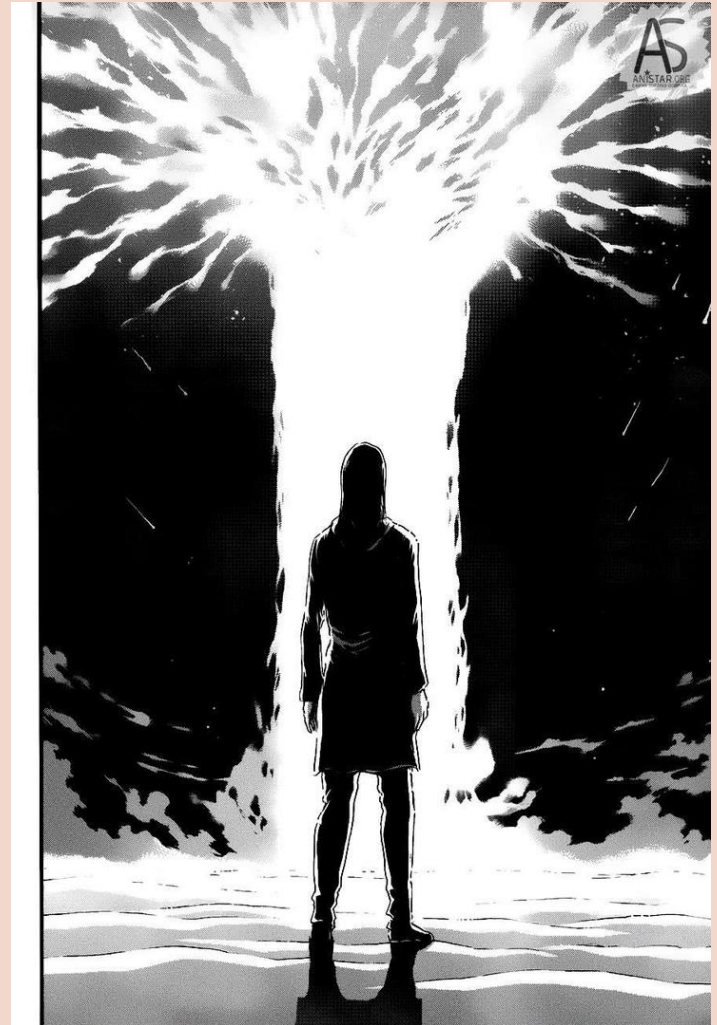

Eren is another strong character who has suffered many losses in his life and finally sacrificed himself for the good of others.

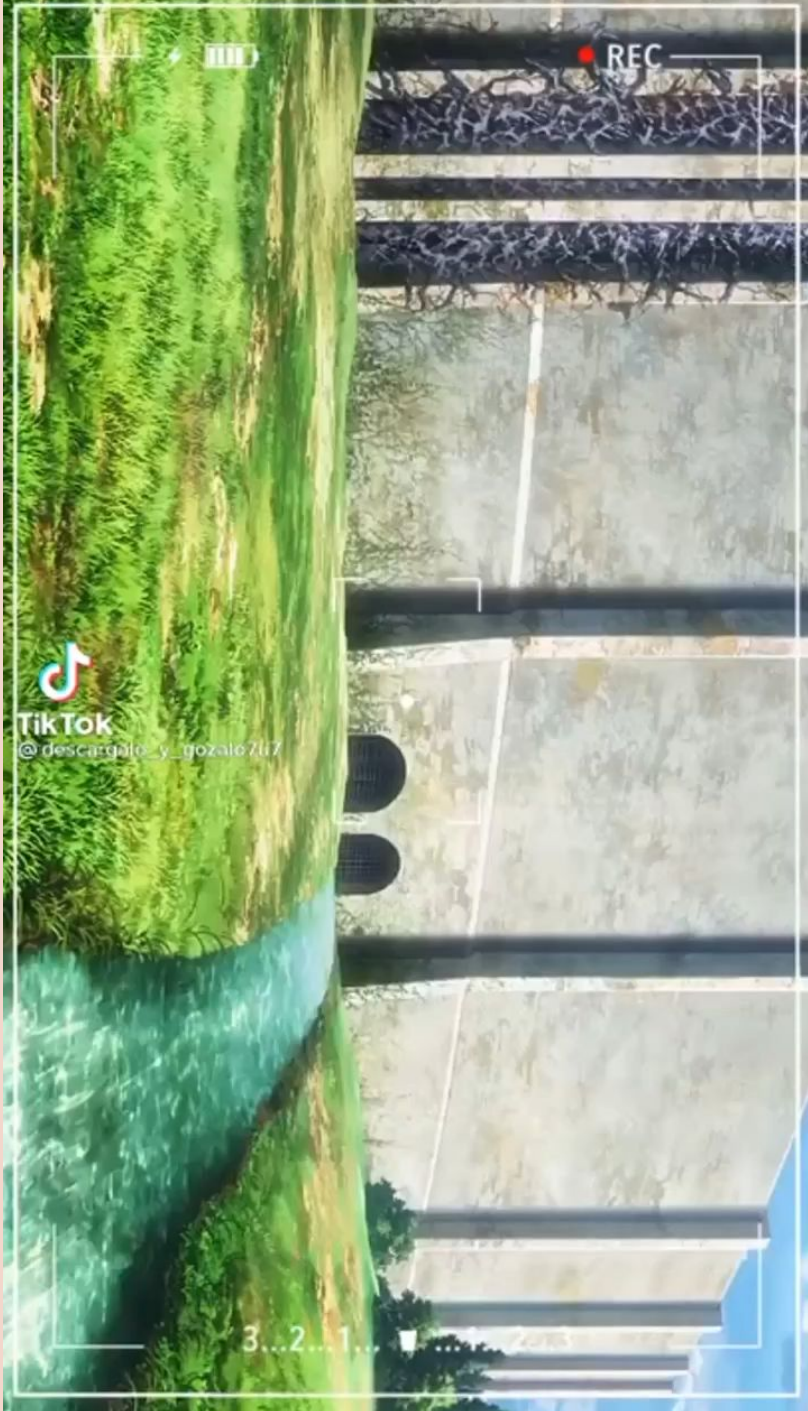

«There is no truth in this world.
Anyone can become both God and the Devil as long as someone is willing to proclaim him as such»

And Akaashi Keiji!
I just love this character, he's wonderful!

and I love cats!
