

REPORTED SPEECH

WHEN?

WE USE REPORTED SPEECH TO TELL ANOTHER PERSON WHAT THEY SAID

WE USUALLY CHANGE THE TENSE OF THE WORDS FROM DIRECT SPEECH .

DIRECT SPEECH

I like reading

I am flying to New York next week.

I will find your wallet.

I can make you laugh.

I was at the stadium yesterday.

REPORTED SPEECH

- He said he liked reading
- He said he was flying to New York next week
- He said he would find my wallet.
- She said she could make us laugh.
- She said she had been at the stadium the other day.

- I have been to Italy.
- We may be late.
- I must buy a her dress.

- He said he had been to Italy.
- They said they might be late.
- She said
- She said she had to buy a new dress.

SAY TO SOMEBODY TELL SOMEBODY

- I said to her, that I might be late.

- I TOLD HER THAT I might be late.

REPORTED QUESTIONS

WE USE INDIRECT QUESTIONS TO REPORT ABOUT WHAT SOMEONE ASKED.

- Will you come to our party?
- When does the party start?

- She asked if /whether I would come to their party.
- She asked when the party started.

ADVERBS OF TIME AND PLACE ALSO CHANGE IN THE REPORTED SPEECH

- Tomorrow
- Yesterday
- Here
- This afternoon
- The next day
- The other day
- There
- That afternoon

REPORTED COMMANDS

WE USE INDIRECT COMMANDS WITH OBJECT/SUBJECT + TO + INFINITIVE

• He told me to go away.

She asked him to stop staring at her

They asked us not to shout.