

What am I?

A Sea Creature Themed Powerpoint Game

What am I?

Click the shells to show the clues.

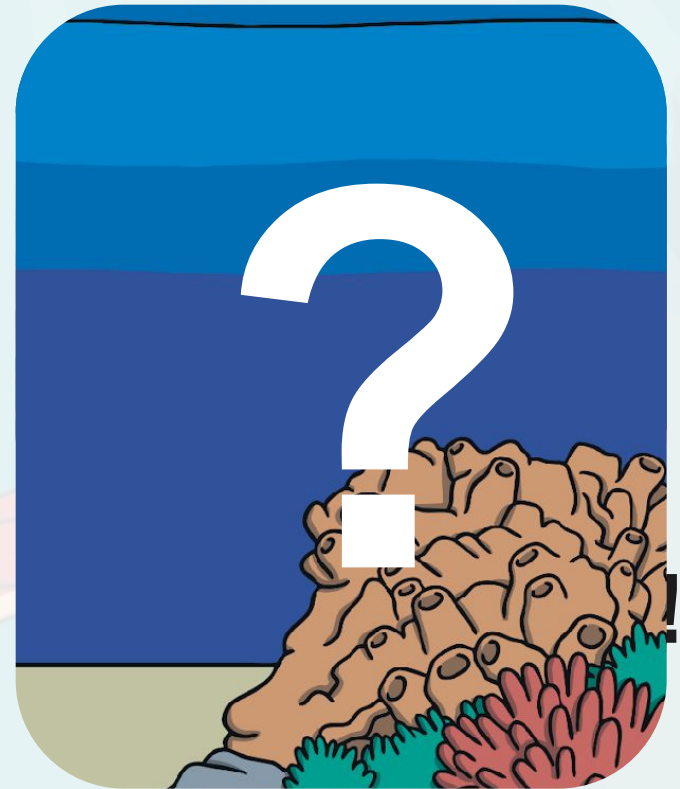

I have very rough, sharp skin.

I have a pointy fin on my back.

I have sharp teeth and eat other fish.

Click the question mark to reveal the answer

Next

What am I?

Click the shells to show the clues.

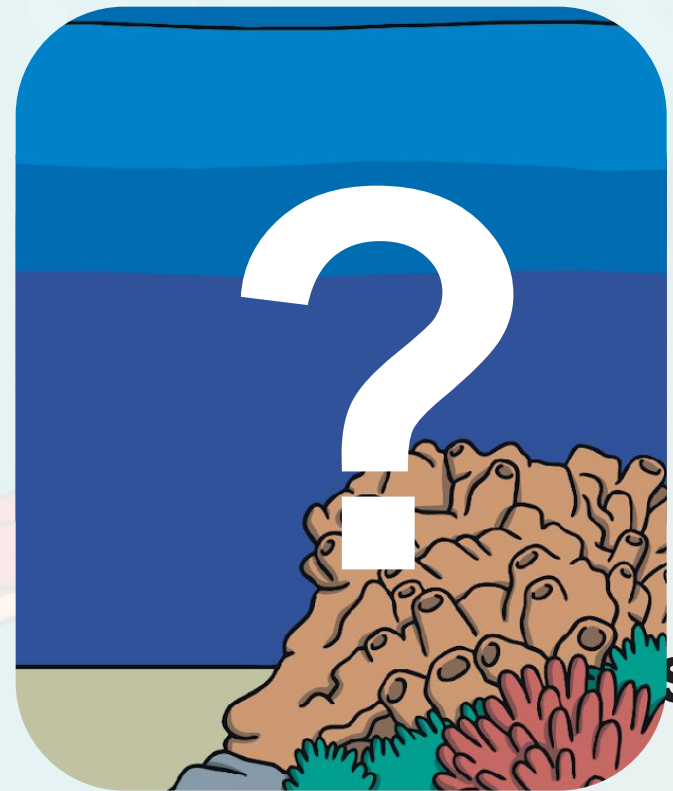

I release ink when I am scared.

I have a great, big head.

I have rows of suckers on my 8 legs.

Click the question mark to reveal the answer

Next

What am I?

Click the shells to show the clues.

I have 2 sharp claws called pincers.

I walk sideways along the sand.

I have a hard shell.

Click the question mark to reveal the answer

Next

What am I?

Click the shells to show the clues.

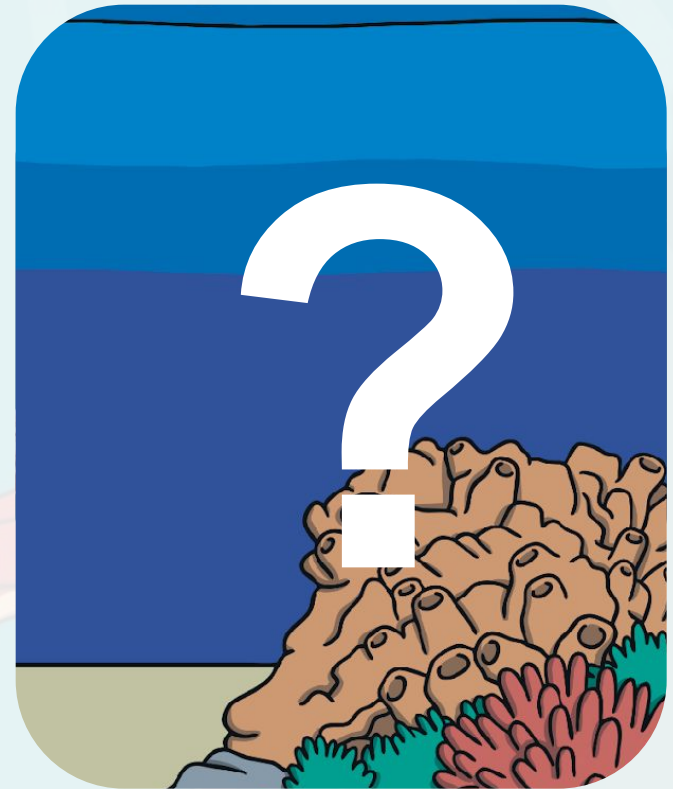

I have 4 flippers.

I have cousins that live on land called tortoises.

I have a hard shell on my back.

Click the question mark to reveal the answer

Next

What am I?

Click the shells to show the clues.

I have dangerous spines all over my body.

I like to hide in the coral reef.

I can blow myself up to be twice as big when in danger!

Click the question mark to reveal the answer

Next

What am I?

Click the shells to show the clues.

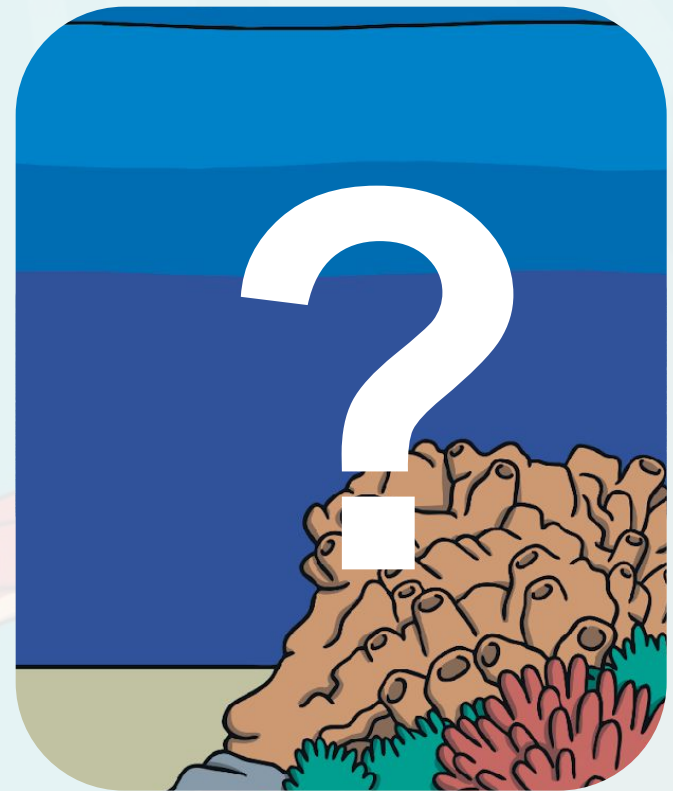

I have to come up to the surface to breathe.

I have a blowhole.

I can grow to be the largest animal on Earth.

Click the question mark to reveal the answer

Next

What am I?

Click the shells to show the clues.

I have long tentacles which hang from my body.

My tentacles can sting you.

I don't have any bones and I am see-through.

Click the question mark to reveal the answer

Next

What am I?

Click the shells to show the clues.

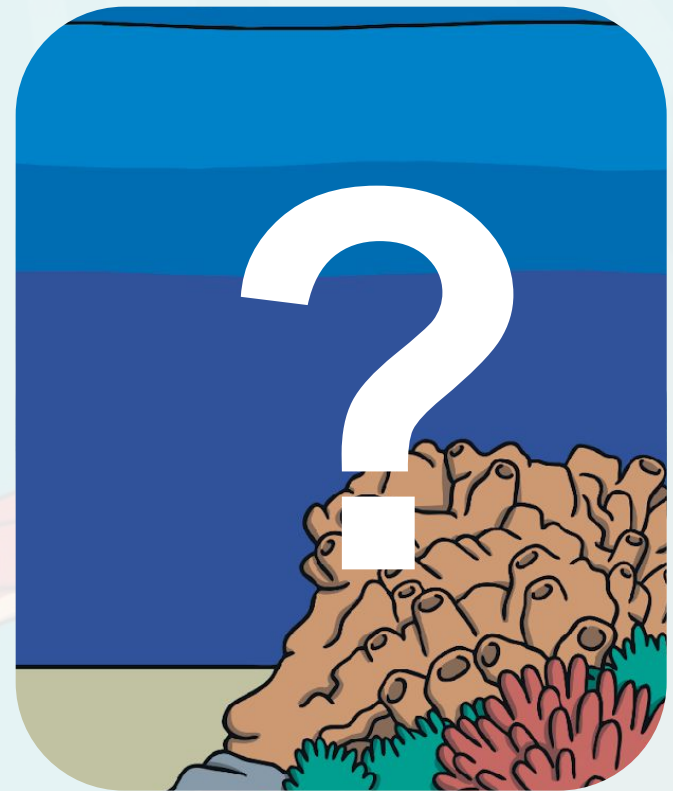

I like to dive in and out of the water.

I talk to my friends using clicks, whistles and squeaks.

I might look like a big fish but I am a mammal.

Click the question mark to reveal the answer

twinkl

