

What is advice?

Definition: guidance or recommendations offered with regard to prudent future action.

Synonyms: guidance, advising, counseling, counsel, help, direction, instruction, information, enlightenment, etc.

For example:

I think you should wear a suit to the interview.

Or:

You shouldn't drink coffee in the evening.
It'll keep you awake.

Use should/shouldn't + verb (infinitive without to) to give somebody advice or say what you think is the right thing to do.

I
You
He She
It
We They should shouldn't ★ ought to and ought not to

is also possible.

You ought to wear a suit.

You ought not to drink coffee.

We often use I think you should... and I don't think you should...

I think you should change your job.

I don't think you should speak to her.

Now it's your turn.

I don't know what to get my boyfriend/girlfriend for his/her birthday. It's tomorrow!

What should I do?

I have problems going to sleep at night.
What should I do?

My children want a dog, but my husband/wife is allergic to animals.

What should I do?

My neighbour's dog barks all the time and it's driving me crazy!

What should I do?

My laptop isn't working well – it's very slow.
What should I do?

I share a flat with a friend but he/she never does the washing-up!

What should I do?

I want to take my boyfriend / girlfriend
somewhere really special on Saturday night.

What should I do?

I think I'm getting a cold – I have a headache and a cough.

What should I do?

I need some new clothes for a wedding, but I don't know what to buy.

What should I do?

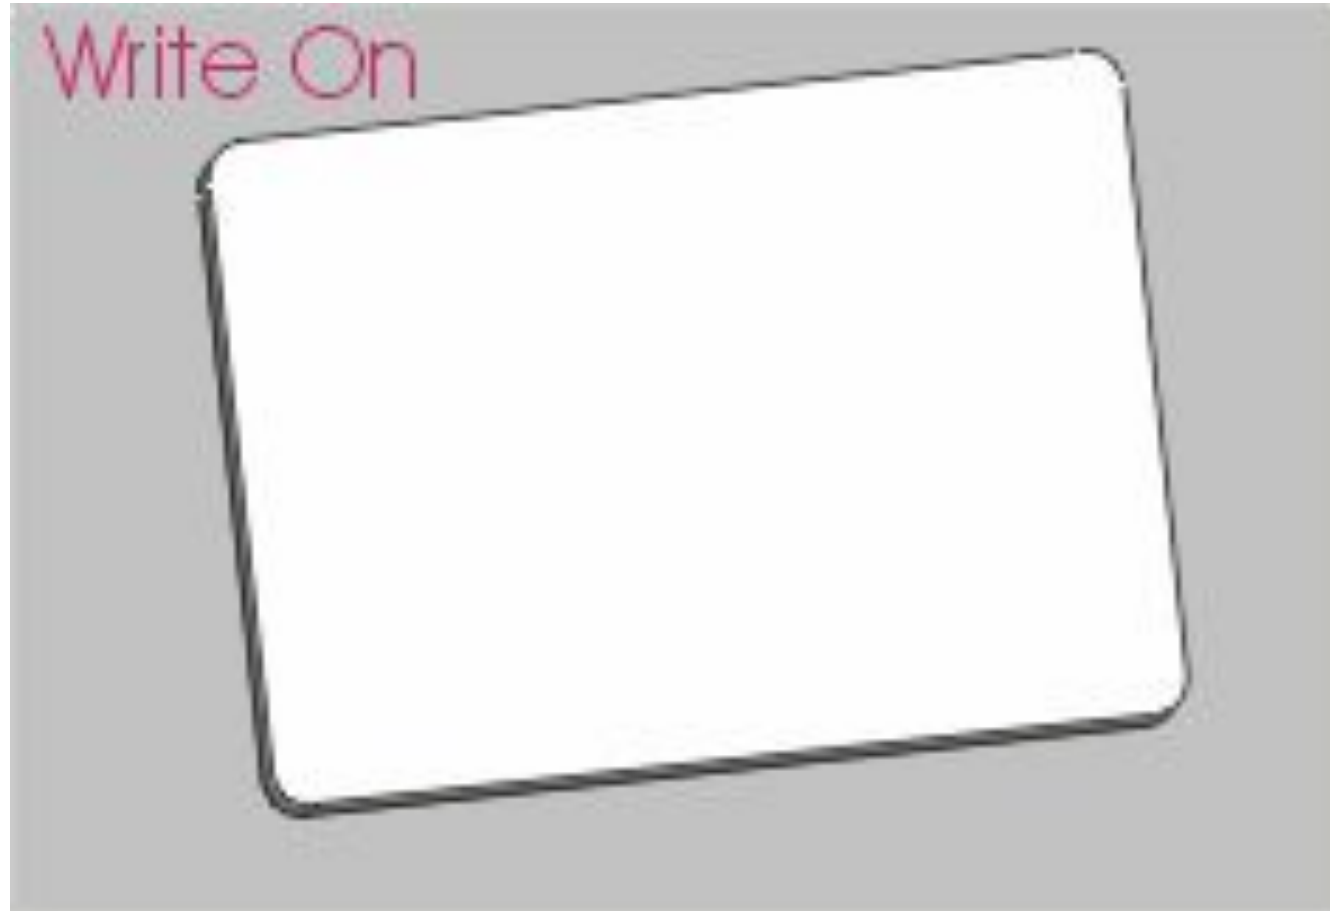

My sister always borrows my clothes, and when I want to wear them they're dirty.

What should I do?

Write SHOULD on one side and SHOULDN'T on the other side of your miniboard.
