

WHAT DO WE NEED FOR PANCAKES?

Let's fry our pancakes!

A kitchen scene featuring a white gas stove with black grates and knobs. A black frying pan sits on the front burner, containing a bright yellow, bubbly mixture. To the left of the stove, a white plate holds a stack of golden-brown pancakes with a pat of butter melting on top. Above the stove, a large orange thought bubble contains the text "I am ready!". In the bottom right corner, a yellow arrow points right, containing the text "Let's eat them!". The background shows a wooden cabinet and a sink area.

I am ready!

Let's eat them!

It was delicious!
Thank you!
