

WHAT DO WE NEED FOR PANCAKES?

Let's fry our pancakes!

A kitchen scene featuring a white gas stove with a black frying pan containing a yellow egg mixture. To the left, a white plate holds a stack of golden-brown pancakes. An orange thought bubble with the text "I am ready!" is positioned above the stove. A yellow arrow pointing right with the text "Let's eat them!" is located in the bottom right corner. The stove is set on a white countertop above wooden cabinets.

I am ready!

Let's eat them!

It was delicious!
Thank you!
