

-Hello, children!

-How are you?

-let's start our lesson! Open your books on Spotlight on Russia p. 11

You find them in every kitchen in Russia.
What are they? ... Mushrooms of course.

Spotlight on Russia finds out about this old Russian tradition.

Mushrooms

11

a hunter

Фонетическая разминка, читаем вслух

A hunter likes hunting.

A hunter likes hunting and hunting for mushrooms.

RUSSIAN DISHES

Запишите в тетрадь, распределив в
два столбика слова:

boil, peel, mix, clean, fry, grill, chop, bake, fill, grate, pour, add

preparation for cooking	ways of cooking

Проверьте себя:

preparation for cooking		ways of cooking
peel		boil		peel
mix				mix
clean		fry		clean
chop				chop
fill in		grill		fill
grate				boil
pour		bake		fry
add				grill
				bake

NEW WORDS

- hunt for mushrooms – собирать грибы
- oven - печка
- housewives - домохозяйки
- main dish – главное блюдо
- sour cream - сметана
- sell - продавать

Читаем и переводим:

Mushrooms

Every year from July to October many Russian people go hunting¹ for mushrooms. It is a very old Russian tradition. Some people collect mushrooms to sell in shops and restaurants in the cities but most of them end up in the Russian kitchen. Housewives bake the mushrooms with sour cream in the oven, fry them in butter, or boil them in soups. Sometimes they cook them as a main dish, or mix them with cheese, yoghurt, beef or chicken. Let's look at the recipe Olga sent us.

TRUE/FALSE (определите что правда, что нет)

- Many Russians go hunting for mushrooms in winter.
- Some people collect mushrooms at the shops.
- Housewives cook mushrooms into the oven.
- Housewives like to mix mushrooms with meat and diary products.

HOMEWORK

* Выучить новые слова, запишите их в словарики

