

7 Sights of Zlatoust

The panorama of Zlatoust of 1896 by Pavel Pecetsky.

Old Zlatoust

Берсенеv Г. М. Основание Златоуста. 1952 г. Из фондов Златоустовского краеведческого музея.

New Photos

Sundial in St. Nicholas Park

Tram

The tramway system of Zlatoust is the most mountainous in Russia.

Tesminskoe Water Reservoir

It is the main source of water supply of the town (about 8000 cubic meters). Swimming in it is prohibited.

Art Object "One Lucky Kuzyuk"

It is a new sculpture situated near Children's park in Gagarin's avenue. It is an enlarged copy of a famous souvenir coin "Lucky Kuzyuk". This coin is one of the symbols of Zlatoust.

"One Lucky Kuzyuk"

Kuzyuk is a native of Zlatoust. It came from the word KUZ, a shortening that means Kazyonnuy Uralsky Zavod (State Ural Plant).

Sports Complex “Taganay”

The sports complex was built in 2015. It has an ice court that contains 120 people. Children of all ages can engage in ice-hockey, figure and speed skating.

House of Chief of Mining

It is an ancient building in the main square of Zlatoust. It was built in 1786, and till 1917 it was a home for all chiefs of mining of Zlatoust, including a noted scientist and metallurgist Pavel Petrovich Anosov. Today the museum of local lore is placed there.

Taganay Bird Park

It is a new ecopark, that was open in 2014 at the foot of the mountain Taganay. About 100 species of birds are kept in it. Also such animals as horses, rabbits, goats and dappled deer live there.

Taganay Bird Park

Translate these words

A swan, a peacock, an ostrich, an owl.

What sights of Zlatoust did you remember?