

Part 1. "Gerund and Infinitive"

1. My friend really enjoys ... (to play) badminton.

My friend really enjoys playing badminton.

2. Would you mind my ... (to sing) one song? You will like it.

Would you mind my singing one song? You will like it.

3. They offer ... (to have) a cup of coffee.

They offer to have a cup of coffee.

4. Yesterday evening my colleague suggested ... (to eat out) somewhere.

Yesterday evening my colleague suggested eating out somewhere.

5. She seems ... (to speak) English fluently.

She seems to speak English fluently.

6. It is so kind of him ... (to give) me a lift to the university.

It is so kind of him to give me a lift to the university.

7. When I came in, they stopped ... (to watch) TV. They looked at me.

When I came in, they stopped watching TV. They looked at me.

8. When I am on holiday, I love ... (not, to wake up) early.

When I am on holiday, I love not waking up early.

A decorative background on the left side of the page featuring three balloons in light green, light blue, and light purple, with yellow streamers and triangular flags trailing from them.

9. They've postponed ... (to hold) an international conference.

They've postponed holding an international conference.

10. She denied ... (to take) a blank tile from the bag.

She denied taking a blank tile from the bag.

11. It's a pleasure ... (to talk) to you every time I meet.

It's a pleasure to talk to you every time I meet.

12. Right now I regret ... (to tell) you the truth.

Right now I regret telling you the truth.

13. 'Dear friends! I regret ... (to tell) you some unpleasant news'.

'Dear friends! I regret to tell you some unpleasant news'.

14. I can't imagine you ... (to be) a leading engineer. You are too young.

I can't imagine you being a leading engineer. You are too young.

15. I'm hungry. Is there anything to eat?

I'm hungry. Is there anything to eat?

16. Keep on ... (to read). I love ... (to listen) to you.

Keep on reading. I love listening to you.

17. I promise ... (not, to interrupt) them during the speech.

I promise not to interrupt them during the speech.

18. We decided ... (to stay) at the hotel a bit longer.

We decided *to stay at the hotel a bit longer.

19. I agreed ... (to book) a hotel room online.

I agreed *to book a hotel room online.

20. I have just decided ... (not, to call) them any more.

I have just decided *not to call them any more.

21. Tom usually tends ... (to forget) things.

Tom usually tends *to forget things.

22. This is a very hard text for her ... (to translate) without a dictionary.

This is a very hard text for her to translate without a dictionary.

23. Have you ever considered ... (to scuba dive)?

Have you ever considered *scuba diving?

24. They sometimes avoid ... (to meet) us.

They sometimes avoid *meeting us.

25. I don't mind ... (to write) a report for you.

I don't mind *writing a report for you.

26. Go on ... (to work) here if you want.

Go on *working here if you want.