

Kungur

Kungur

Kungur is a very old city.

It was founded in 1663. From the south and south-west near the hill where the city staged a flowing Irene Sylva from the north.

Town Square, 7000 acres

Kungur

Kungur-merchant city.
This trade has become a major impetus to the development of the city.
Therefore, great attention is paid to the merchant houses and museums that are dedicated to trade.

city

Kungur is full of history, and is considered the capital of Russian tea in the XIX century.

Kungur Ice Cave

It is noteworthy natural dosto- known to man for over 300 years.

Supposedly, in ancient times it hid pescher- nye people from the weather.

Religion

orthodoxy

Existing Orthodox churches: Church of the Tikhvin Icon of the Mother of God
Small church Alekseevskaya
All Saints church church of the Assumption St. Nicholas Church
Transfiguration Church

Islam

Kungurskaya Mosque (mahalla)

Sky Fair

This Festival of Ballooning, which is held in Kungur ing since 2002.

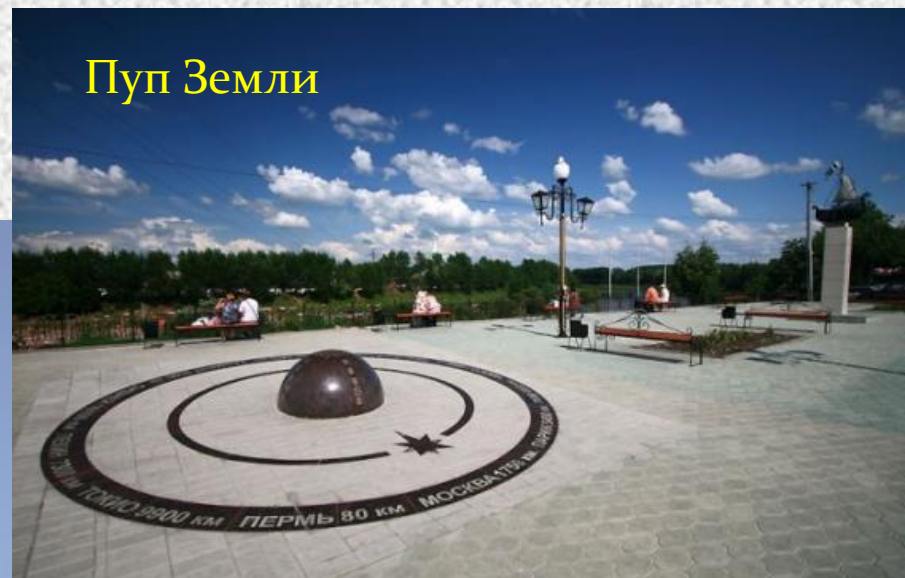

Every year, increasing the number of participants and the geography of the guests. We propose to organize such festivals in our city.

Unusual monuments Kungur

Никита Летун

Пуп Земли

Солнечные часы

Памятник первопроходцам

Роза ветров