G: Where do you work in you spare time?

S: At the baker's shop at the corner of my street.

G: How did you get the job?

S: Oh, it was very easy. I went to the shop and the lady who owns it told me how busy she is every Saturday. I offered to come and help her.

G: How much do you get?

S: Oh, not much. She pays me two dollars an hour. So if I work for eight hours, I get 16 dollars.

G: Well, that's pretty good for one's day work. I only get 12 dollars a week for working every morning.

S: I didn't know you work, too. What do you do?

G: I do newspapers round.

S: Don't you have to get up early, before school, to do that?

G: Yes, I get up at half past six every morning.

S: That's why you nearly fell asleep in a German class yesterday.

G: I deliver newspapers to your house, too.

S: But I've never seen you.

G: Of course, not! You are still fast asleep when I come around.

S: I suppose you get up early on Sundays, too?

G: Yes, Sunday is the busiest day of all. Everyone has more papers on Sunday because they have more time to read them. But it's worth it. I'm going to buy a new guitar next week.

S: And I'm trying to save for vacation in Germany. I want to go with my friend Carol, who goes baby-sitting two evenings a week. She gets three dollars a night for that and all she does is sit and watch television with the children!

G: I wish I could do that!

EXERCISE 1. RECONSTRUCT THE DIALOGUE

G: Where do you work in you свободное время ?

S: At the baker's shop at the corner of my street.

G: How did you get the работу?

S: Oh, было легко. I went to the shop and the lady who владеет it told me how busy she is every Saturday. I offered to come and help her.

G: How much do you get?

S: Oh, not much. She платит мне two dollars an hour. So if I work for eight hours, I get 16 dollars.

G: Well, that's pretty good for one's day work. I only get 12 dollars a week for working every morning.

S: I didn't know you work, too. What do you do?

G: I разношу газеты round.

S: Don't you have to get up early, before school, to do that?

G: Yes, I встаю в полседьмого every morning.

S: That's why you nearly fell asleep in a German class yesterday.

G: I доставляю газеты to your house, too.

S: But I've never seen you.

G: Of course, not! You are still fast asleep when I come around.

S: I предполагаю you get up early on Sundays, too?

G: Yes, Sunday is самый занятый day of all. Everyone has more papers on Sunday because they have more time to read them. But это того стоит. I собираюсь buy a new guitar next week.

S: And I'm trying to save for vacation in Germany. I want to go with my friend Carol, who goes нянкой two evenings a week. She gets three dollars a night for that and all she does is sit and watch television with the children!
