

Insight Link Starter

Book 1

Background Link PPT

Chapter 1. Wild Animals

Where Do Wild Animals Live?

Warm Up

What animals live in the forest?
What about in the desert?

Forest

woodpecker

bear

Desert

camel

fennec fox

Background Link

Wild animals live in different places such as forests, deserts, and rivers.

Chapter 1. Wild Animals

Swan Lake

Warm Up

What do you know about ballet?

A tutu is a beautiful dress for ballet.

Background Link

Ballet is a kind of music and dance.

Ballerinas wear toe shoes.

Chapter 1. Wild Animals

Food Wild Animals Eat

Warm Up

What do these animals eat?
Guess and circle the food.

Background Link

Animals eat different kinds of food.
They get food from nature.

Chapter 1. Wild Animals

Say Cheese!

Warm Up

Is there a national park in your country?

Background Link

We make national parks to protect natural areas.

Serengeti National Park in Tanzania is home to wild animals.

Animals such as lions, cheetahs, gazelles, and zebras live in the plains there.

Chapter 2. Oranges

How Oranges Grow

Warm Up

What is your favorite fruit?
Do you know where it is from?

Background Link

Farmers grow fruits on their farms.

Some fruits grow on trees.

Other fruits grow on vines.

Chapter 2. Oranges

Valencia and Navel Oranges

United States

Italy

China

India

Chile

South Africa

Warm Up

Some fruits grow better in certain countries.
Can you add more fruits to this map?

Background Link

Fruits come from around the world.

Chapter 2. Oranges

How Oranges Saved the Royal Navy

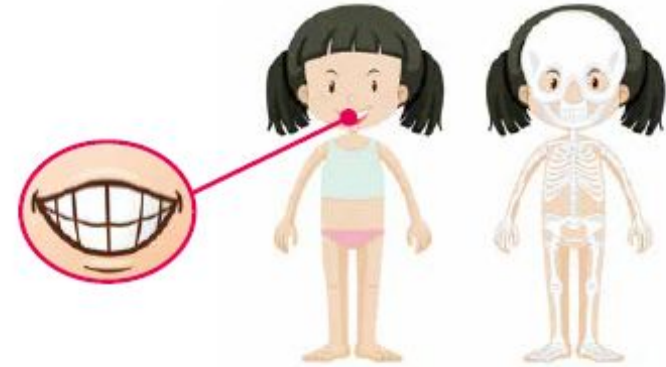

Warm Up

How often do you eat fruit?

Background Link

We can get vitamin C from fruits.

Vitamin C is good for your teeth and bones.

Each fruit has a different amount of vitamin C.

Chapter 2. Oranges

Tangerine Peel Art

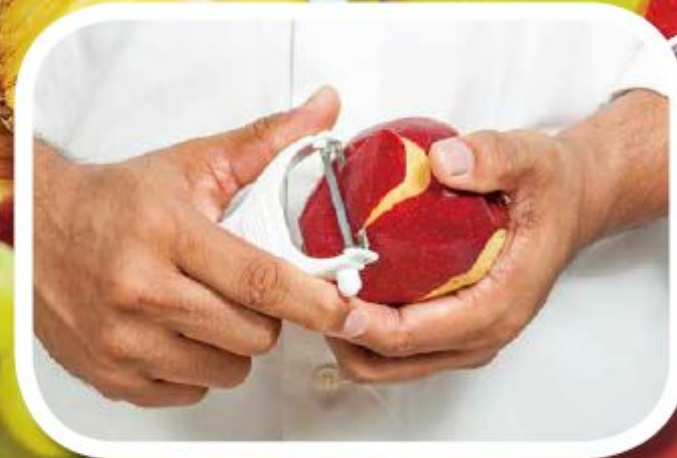

Warm Up

What are some ways to peel fruit?

Background Link

Oranges, lemons, and tangerines are citrus fruits. They all have peels.

Chapter 3. Sky

How Birds Fly in the Sky

Warm Up

Look at the bird's body parts.
What do they look like?

Background Link

Birds have feathers and wings.
Wings flap up and down when birds fly.

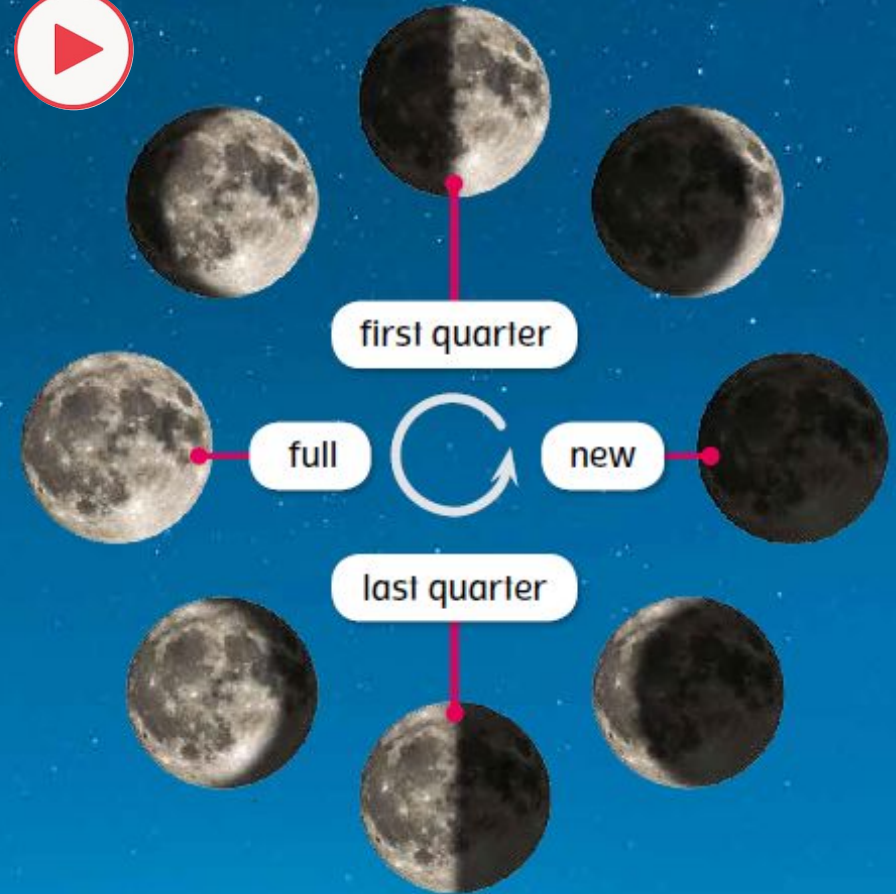

Chapter 3. Sky

The Full Moon's Special Names

Warm Up

When did you last see the full moon?

Background Link

The moon is up in the sky. It shines brightly at night.

The moon's shape is always changing. You can see the full moon every 29.5 days.

Chapter 3. Sky

Why the Sky Is Far Away

Warm Up

If you could get a piece of the sky, what would you do with it?

Background Link

The sky plays an important role in many myths and folktales.

Chapter 3. Sky

Hospital in the Sky

Warm Up

Look for these things in the picture.

- a rescue worker
- an ambulance
- a helicopter

Can you guess what they are doing?

Background Link

An ambulance takes sick people to and from the hospital in emergencies.

Chapter 4. Eggs

Sunny-Side Up, Please!

Warm Up

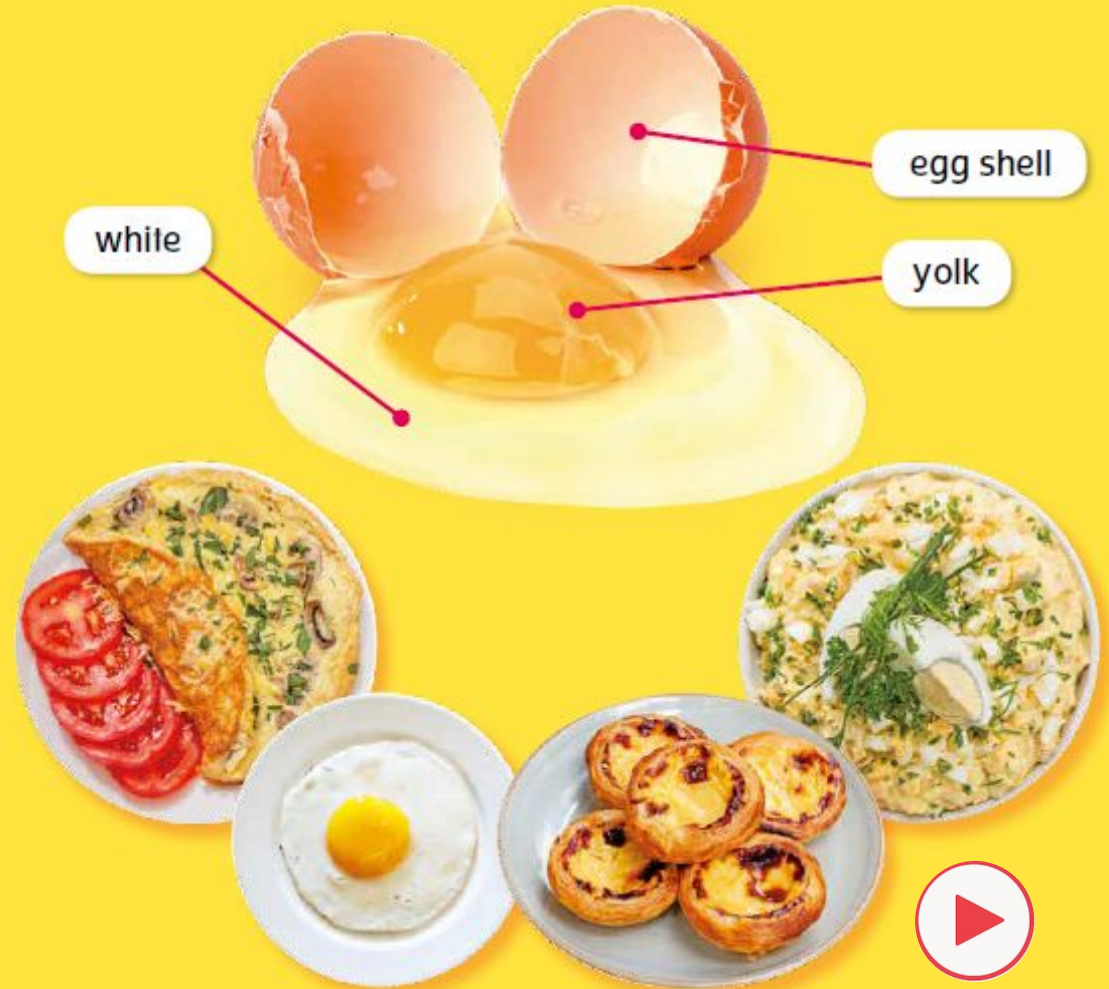

Do you like egg dishes?

Background Link

Eggs are full of protein. Protein builds your muscles.

There are various egg recipes around the world.

Chapter 4. Eggs

How Do Ducks Lay Eggs?

chicken

My eggs are light brown and small.

duck

My eggs are larger than a chicken's eggs.

ostrich

My eggs are big and round.

quail

My eggs have black dots.

Warm Up
Birds lay eggs. Whose eggs are these?
Guess and Match.

Chapter 4. Eggs

The Egg-and-Spoon Race

Warm Up

Think about your school's sports day.
What fun games do you play? Look and check.

Soccer

Sack Race

Race

Tug-of-War

Background Link

Schools around the world have sports days!

Chapter 4. Eggs

Why Are Eggs Oval-Shaped?

Triangle

A triangle has three sides.

Circle

A circle is a completely round shape.

Square

A square has four sides.

Oval

An oval has the shape of an egg!

Warm Up

What shapes are these? Think about the shapes around you.