WOMEN AS ELECTORS: TENDENCIES

STATE DUMA: FEMALE REPRESENTATION

The percentage of women in the State Duma is about 15% while the “norm” is considered to be 30%

“UNITED RUSSIA”

Women still act as a complement to a political party. Some ladies like Natalya Poklonskaya or Maria Zakharova have become a symbol of Putin's conservative policies, but the real power is still held by the male half.

Women perform a particular function yet are not fully politically independent.

OPPOSITION

“Apple” Party:

- Has their own gender fraction
 - Gender policy and reforms
 - Female party leader
 - Laws against domestic violence, support of women, gender equity in political, social and economic spheres .

ADVOCATE FOR WOMEN’S RIGHTS AND GENDER EQUALITY.

Their Political Activity & Ideas

PRIORITIES

Russian women are more concerned about the well-being of their family, country and region rather than an opportunity to participate in politics.

GOVERNMENT'S RELUCTANCE TO SOLVE GENDER ISSUES

GLASS CEILING

Since it is harder for women to acquire high positions in this sphere, they are discouraged to do so.

GENDER STEREOTYPES

Women are often seen as weak, indifferent and inconsistent individuals unsuitable for politics.

WHY WE NEED FEMALE REPRESENTATION IN POLITICS

- to support and protect interests of children

- to advance and advocate for women's rights

- to pay more attention to social issues

The background is a solid light pink color. A large, semi-transparent light pink rectangle is centered on the page. The text "THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION!" is written in a bold, dark blue, sans-serif font, centered within this rectangle. The text is arranged in two lines: "THANK YOU FOR YOUR" on the top line and "ATTENTION!" on the bottom line. Scattered around the central rectangle are several geometric shapes: small white circles, dark blue zigzag lines, and 3D triangular prisms with white and dark blue faces. These shapes are positioned at the corners and edges of the central rectangle, creating a modern, geometric aesthetic.
