

The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

State System and Sights

State System: Parliamentary Monarchy

THE QUEEN

- a formal ruler
- official residence is Buckingham Palace, in London
- responsible for official, ceremonial, diplomatic and representational duties.

THE PARLIAMENT

- PM - Theresa May
- The supreme authority
- two chambers: the House of Lords and the House of commons
- make the laws

Queen Elizabeth II

Since February, 6 1952

THE PARLIAMENT

A parliament is the group of people who make the laws of their country.

British parliament consists of two Houses: the House of Lords and the House of Commons

The Prime Minister

Theresa May

Since July, 13 2016

British Sights

MAIN SIGHTS

- Stonehenge (Wiltshire, England)
- Lake District National Park (England)
- The Northern Highlands (Scotland)
- Cambridge University

LONDON

- Tower of London
- Westminster Abbey
- Tower Bridge
- London Eye

ENTRY TO THE TRAITORS GATE

Thank you for your attention