You have received an email message <sup>1</sup> from your English-speaking pen-friend Ben:

From: Ben@mail.uk

To: Russian_friend@oge.ru

Subject: Time out

...I am very busy now preparing for my exams but yesterday I went to the cinema with my friends.

...What kinds of films do you like? Where do you prefer watching films – in the cinema or at home, and why? What would you make a film about if you had a chance? ...

Write a message to Ben and answer his 3 questions.

Write 100–120 words.

Remember the rules of letter writing.

From: Russian_friend@oge.ru

Subject: Time out

Dear Ben,

Thank you for your email message. I hope everything is fine with you and your family.

In your letter you asked me about films. Well, I like horror and comedy films. They make me forget about everyday problems. I can sit and relax.

To tell the truth, I like watching films in the cinema because the sound and the quality of the film is better than at home. You can buy pop-corn and share your time with your friends. If I had a chance to make a film, I would make it about the life of a scientist who made a great discovery.

Well, I'd better go now as I have to help my mother in the kitchen.

Write me back soon.

Best wishes,

Tanya

Answer this question.

You are going to spend a weekend with your friend from Scotland called Chris Stewart. Read the email you have just received from Chris and the notes you've made. Write a reply to Chris using all the notes (in red). You should write approximately 150 words.

New message from Chris Stewart

Subject: Coming to Glasgow

Hi,

I'm really happy that we'll see each other next weekend! A friend of mine plays in a band and they're going to play a small concert on Friday evening. Would you like to go and see my friend playing with her group?

We need to decide what to do on Saturday. We could either take a trip down the River Clyde in a boat (I'm sure you'd love the beautiful scenery) or we could go and see a football match. Can you tell me which activity you'd rather do?

I wanted to ask your advice about something. I've just started to learn Italian but I only have one hour of lessons every week. Can you give me some advice on how to improve my Italian as quickly as possible?

Just one final thing. You told me in your last message that you have a new skateboard. Could you bring it with you to Scotland? I'd love to have a go on it.

All the best,
Chris

Great idea!

Give some advice.

Tell Chris.

Not possible. Say why.

Hi Chris,

Thanks for your email. It's great to hear from you. I can't wait to come and visit!

So, about Friday ... I'd love to see your friend's band! What kind of music do they play? I'm thinking of starting my own band so it'll be good to meet your friends and ask them about it.

On Saturday, I'd prefer to go on the boat trip on the river. I'm not really a football fan to be honest. The boat trip sounds much more chilled out!

So, you're learning Italian? I'm impressed! Why don't you try and find an Italian to practise speaking with? If you find someone who's learning English, you could do a language exchange. It's the best way to learn. You should try to read some books in Italian as well.

You asked about my skateboard. I'm sorry but I can't bring it with me to Scotland. I've got loads of stuff and it's too big to fit in my suitcase.

I'm really looking forward to seeing you!

Best wishes,

Sira
