

Weather Idioms

- if the weather allows it.

Weather permitting, we will be there on time

- Worn out, aged by the weather

He's got a weather beaten face.

- A face like thunder = to be angry/upset
What's up with him today? He has a face like thunder

Feeling Under the Weather?

- not healthy

It's hard to keep working when you're under the weather.

- In all weathers = No matter what the weather is like

We'll go there in all weathers.

KEEP CALM AND WEATHER
THE STORM

- to survive a difficult situation

This recession is quite serious and it's becoming difficult to weather the storm.

- Storm in a teacup = a lot of fuss over something small Don't worry about those two arguing. it's just a storm in a teacup

- Brighten up the day = something happens that makes you feel positive and happy all day long.

by Lidia Karavaeva
Kirovsk Gymnasium
2013