

Lesson 2: Welcome to your workstation

Year 7 – Impact of Technology – Collaborating online respectfully

What can you remember from last lesson?

1. Log in to your computer
2. Write down one rule for the computing lab on your sticky note and put it on the whiteboard
3. Help another student to log in if you managed to do this really quickly

Lesson 2: Welcome to your workstation

In this lesson, you will:

- Find personal documents and common applications
- Recognise a respectful email
- Construct an effective email and send it to the correct recipients

Let's take a tour!

Email: a tool for online communication

- Have you sent an email before?
- Why might you need to email a teacher?
- Why might you need to email another learner?
- Would you write an email to a teacher in the same way that you would write one to a friend?

Subject: Today in class

The work that you produced today in my class was dreadful and I would rather not have you in my lessons any more.

Don't bother turning up next time.
