

Seasons

- This is a bear.
- His name is Teddy.
- This is the house where Teddy and his parents live.

- This is Teddy's room.
- You can see many pictures on the walls of his room.
- These are Teddy's pictures.

Teddy likes to draw.

Every morning he goes to the forest and draws pictures there.

Now Teddy is going to the forest.

- It's spring now.
- It's warm in spring.
- Now Teddy is in the forest.
- The weather is fine.

- Now Teddy is drawing a picture.
- He is drawing a tree.
- He is drawing spring flowers too.

- There are many pictures of spring on the walls of Teddy's room.

- It's summer now.
- It's hot in summer.
- Teddy is going to the forest.
- The weather is fine.

- Teddy is drawing summer flowers.

- Now he is drawing cows.

- He is drawing sheep too.

- There are many pictures of summer on the walls of Teddy's room.

- It's autumn now
- It's cool in autumn.

- The weather is not bad today.
- Teddy is going to the garden.

- Now Teddy is in the garden.
- He is drawing apple-trees.

- He is drawing autumn flowers too.

- Now he is drawing a dog near a dog-house

- There are many pictures of autumn on the walls of Teddy's room.

- It's winter now.
- It's cold in winter.

- Teddy is putting on his warm coat.

- Now Teddy is to going to the forest.

- Now he is in the forest.
- He wants to draw a picture of a forest in winter.
- Teddy wants to draw.

- But he wants to sleep too.
- In winter bears go to sleep.
- And now Teddy isn't drawing.
- He is sleeping.

- Here're Teddy's pictures. There are many pictures of spring.
- There are many pictures of autumn too...
- But there are no pictures of winter.
- And you know why.

