New Year celebration you are in for a plus special treat

- You can consider yourself blessed if you find yourself in Lebanon extravagant, hard-partying capital on any given night, but if you are in Beirut on 2021 New Year celebration you are in for a plus special treat.

The focus of Beirut New

- The focus of Beirut New Years Eve is Place de L Etoile or Nejme Square, the busy, shiny Carrefour of pedestrianized areas that coverage approximately the city 1930 clock tower. Here you will find no lack of happy, inebriated partyers from around the globe, combined together in an open-air street party or laid-back party.
- When the clock strikes midnight, a remarkable fireworks show rockets up from the neighboring Beirut port, but no issue where you are in the City, if you step outside at 12am and look up you will witness some really colossal fire job shows.

- Expect that, how you enjoy your New Year in Beirut depends on your frame of mind. The 2 big areas in Beirut called as for the nightlife are Monot and Gemmayze. Gemmayze has little, packed bars, mainly along Gouraud Street, one of Beirut big nightlife strips, while persons head to Mono for the bigger clubs that bump all night long. The hip area found in Hamra, famous for its famous leftist watering holes, is also value checking out.

- If you want to target the dance floor check out shifting paradigms, New York New York, Casino Royale life, all of which host their own themed New Year's celebration parties. Naji Gebran B018 Nightclub, which looks more or less like a bomb explosion and is one of the Beirut most famous discotheques, is a fixture on the City New Year nightlife menu. Other clubs add Cassino, an swanky club decorated with scores of comfy couches and famous with celebrities; Treesome, which is built around a olive tree live, Music Hall Beirut and Bank Night Club live music venue.

- If you want to keep things more easily, consider a laid-back bar like EM Chill or Torino, both of which have no entrance fee on New Year celebration. Dany aso, De Prague, Zucca, Bardo bar have a relaxed New Year enjoyment. If you want to take in a show, the Regency palace and hots puts on New Year comedy shows, and various live fun, also gesso on at Pavilion Royal, Music Hal, Emerald Ballroom and Casino due Liban. Or, if you are in the mood for the festive smashing of wander, plates, around City orthodox Christian neighborhoods around midnight.

Spend your time in a chalet or a smart apartment in the mountains

- Faraya, Kfardebian, Faqra, Zahle and the Cedars are still popular destinations to celebrate New Year's Eve even if it barely snowed this year. The closer you are to Mzaar, the more expensive chalets are but you can find good deals if you go up and ask around. In fact, chances are you will find real cheap chalets if you have time to look around

Spend the night at home or at a friend's house

- Spend the night at home or at a friend's house:

If you have a mountain house or a spacious house with a small garden or outdoor area, you can always plan parties at your own place but it's a hassle to organize everything and make sure no one messes up the house. If you have kids and can't leave them anywhere, you can always plan a fun night (board games, cards, poker) with friends or other parents.
