I wish / If only....

We use the verb wish and the expression if only to express a wish. If only is more emphatic than I wish.

- ◆ wish/if only + past simple/past continuous: when we want to say that we would like something to be different in the present.

e.g. I wish/If only I had a room of my own. (But I don't have a room of my own.)

- ◆ wish/if only + past perfect: to express regret that something happened or did not happen in the past.

e.g. I wish I had got your message earlier. (But I didn't get it earlier.)

If only I had talked to him. (But I didn't talk to him.)

- ◆ wish/if only + would: a) for a polite imperative e.g. I wish you would stop shouting. (Please, stop shouting.)
b) to express our wish for a change in a situation or someone's behaviour because we are annoyed by it.

e.g. I wish the wind would stop blowing. (wish for a change in a situation)

If only John would stop insulting people. (wish for a change in someone's behaviour)

- ◆ After the subject pronouns I and we, we use could instead of would.

e.g. I wish we could go to the party. (NOT: ~~I wish we would go...~~)

Note: We can use were instead of was after wish or if only.

e.g. I wish she were/was more sensitive.
