

NORTH KOREA

THE FLAG OF THE WORKER'S PARTY OF KOREA

EMBLEM OF THE CHAIRMAN OF THE WORKERS' PARTY OF KOREA

THE JUCHE TOWER SYMBOLIZES THE OFFICIAL STATE PHILOSOPHY OF JUCHE

THE NATIONAL EMBLEM OF NORTH KOREA

CULT OF PERSONALITY

Portraits of the Eternal President, Kim Il-sung, and the Eternal General Secretary of the Workers' Party, Kim Jong-il.

Propaganda mosaic commemorating the triumphant homecoming of Kim Il-sung after he liberated Korea from Japan.

FOREIGN RELATIONS

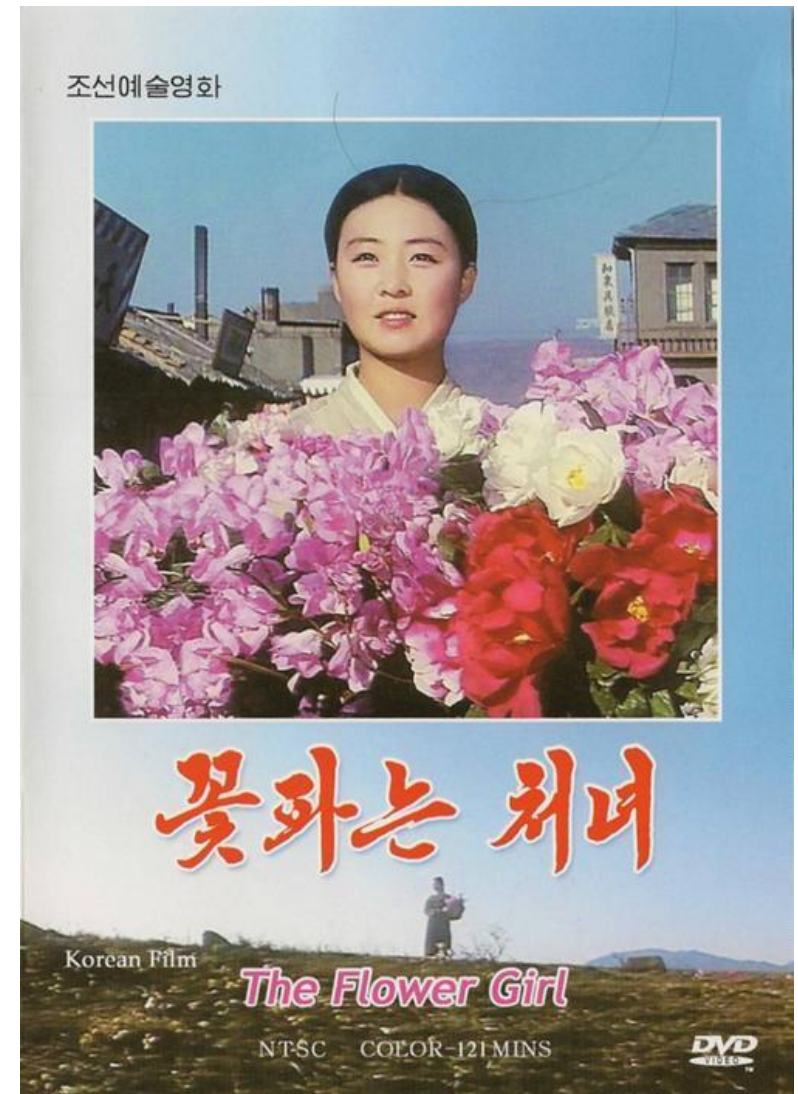

RACIAL PRIDE

DEVOTION TO THE STATE

THE FLOWER GIRL

PROPAGANDA POSTER IN A PRIMARY SCHOOL

The slogan “self-reliance” in large block letters, above trains, machinery, and consumer goods symbolizing goals of the state-planned economy.

The torch of Juche and “self-reliance” slogan.

“Let's thoroughly implement the ideology of putting our military first!”

“Let's solidify our country's unification (i.e., between the two Koreas), independence, and unity in one mind, based on the military-first doctrine!”

“As long as we take our gunstock seriously and keep military-first policy, our nation will not fail!”

“Let's jump higher with aspiring mind and faith!”