There are more than 50 000 professions in the world . It is very important to decide between the great number of them and choose the best.

- The person becomes the master when he understands that until the end of life he remains to be a beginner.

• of success is purpose.

Legend

In the Dutch families when the child is born and only

“M” = “MAN”

“W” = “WORK”

A man and the work.

The person should work, the man is born to work, and this great happiness – to follow the vocation.

In the conditions of hard competition in labor market it is necessary to persuade the employer that you are namely this expert he needs .

In the conditions of modern society it is necessary to know, what qualities the professional has to possess. The choice of profession is a difficult decision in the life of each person. The future of people in many cases depends on the right choice of profession.
