

Who D~~u~~nnit? Did it?

Grammar Edition

CRIME SCENE DO NOT CROSS

A famous van Gogh self portrait was stolen from a museum in Paris, France during a school field trip. A note was left and we have narrowed down the suspects.

1

3

2

CRIME SCENE DO NOT CROSS

CRIME SCENE DO NOT CROSS

Dear Detectives,
you will never catch
me. i was able to steal the painting write under your nose. I hid in the museum until it closed and then snuck out into the gallery. i left no footprints
or fingerprints and there is no way you can figure out who i am.

1

Evidence

Dear Detectives,

*you will never catch me. i
was able to steal the painting
right under your nose. i hid in the museum until it closed and then snuck out into the gallery. i left no footprints or fingerprints and there is no way you can figure out who i am. good luck
trying to catch me.*

What mistakes can we find to help us determine who stole the painting?

Place the magnifying glasses on the mistakes.

dear Detectives,

you will never catch me. i

was able to steal the painting

right under your nose. i hid in the museum until it closed and then snuck out into the gallery.

there are no footprints or fingerprints and there is no way

you can figure out who i am. good luck trying to catch me.

Suspects

Mel

She forgets to use periods in her writing.

Shawn

He has trouble with using capital letters.

Wendy

She has trouble with repeating words.

Samuel

He has trouble with using past tense verbs.

Drag their picture in the box below.

Who do you think did it and how do you know?

Type here

Case Closed.

