

IELTS Essays About Education

Situation Essays

Children who begin reading earlier in life do better academically later on in their school life.

How important is the development of early reading skills in a child's performance at school and what further pre-school factors influence later academic success?

In some schools and universities girls often select arts subjects, for instance, literature, and boys often choose science subjects, such as, physics.

Why do you think this is so? Should this tendency be changed?

Some children receive no encouragement from their Parents regarding their effort in school while other children have too much pressure put on them by their parents which can have a negative impact on the child.

Why do you think some parents' pressure their children so much and what do you think the parent's role should be in their child's education?

These days, many students in school struggle to concentrate for even short periods of time.

What are the reasons for this and how can this situation be improved?

In many high schools, part of the curriculum requires students to perform voluntary work in the community such as helping the elderly.

In what way do students gain from this and do you think it should be a part of the curriculum?

In nearly all science courses in university, there are many more male participants than female.

What is the reason for this and what could be done to reduce the difference in numbers?