I will not forget this summer.]

In June I travelled to Greece with my family. It was very fun and informative because every day we went to the city, this city was located on the most popular island in Greece—it was Crete.

But most of all I liked the hotel where we lived. Because this hotel had three swimming pools, cafes, shops. The most important thing that across the road was a passage to the sea. We were in Greece for ten days. We liked it so much that we didn't (even) want to leave the city.

In July I went to camp for twenty-one days. Those days at camp were the happiest days of my life. Because every day was different from the other. In the morning we got up, made the bed and go to charge. Then we went for breakfast and after that we were going to the sea. And in the evening came the most fun disco. Before going to bed, we usually talked about the day.

Hi, it's Martin here again. Guess what? We were really close to a black rhino today. Aimee and I were on a rhino trek with Bruce, the expedition leader. We noticed some new footprints. It was so exciting because there weren't any rhinos in the first week. It was fantastic when the rhino appeared and walked past us. It was amazing because it's very rare. You can't often see black rhinos in zoos. To see the rhino in Namibia was an experience I will never forget.
