

My schedule

My day always starts differently. It depends on the number of couples in the University. I usually Wake up at 6 in the morning

After I Wake up, I take a shower, and I make Breakfast. Usually it is porridge or coffee. then at 6:45 am I'm starting to get together, dress up and leave home

7 am I am at the bus stop. Then I go to the University. Study is always different time usually I'm free at 3 pm

When I come home I cook dinner, do chores, do homework, read books and watch TV. Then I cook dinner, and I wait for my loved one from work. I go to bed late usually at 12 pm
