Phoenix

Description

The phoenix is a large, magnificent scarlet bird with a crown of flames along its back.

One of the most startling of the phoenix's abilities is its ability to regenerate. When the phoenix's body becomes old, it is reborn as a newborn phoenix.

This process is called Burning Day and gives these birds a great deal of power as well as the ability to fly. The phoenix is a symbol of rebirth and immortality.

Lumos

Lumos is the incantation to a charm that can produce a blinding flash of bright light from the tip of the wand.

Hold the wand horizontally for several seconds before advancing

Step 1

Step 2

Pop your wand, focus on your intention, clear the mind and intend. concentration

Pop in hand one, just flick it, then draw back and flick it a second time, faster, or more. your wand

Complete concentration and focus directed through your wand is crucial to execute a wandless spell. Direction of focus is the first part of solid incantations. Inability to block outside distractions during spellcasting will prevent an effective power through your wand

Occlumency

Description

Occlumency is the art of making the mind blank and empty.

The most basic form of Occlumency involves clearing one's mind – making it "blank and empty" – in order to prevent a Legilimens from perceiving one's emotions and thoughts.

Advanced Occlumency involves not only the thoughts, but also memories that would otherwise be an Occlumens's weakness for Legilimens to believe;

fig. 1

It is obvious that Occlumency is being used if the person is lying. It requires a great deal of will power, as with resisting the effects of the Imperius Curse, as well as a high degree of concentration and discipline. It is also possible to be influenced by the influence of

Golden

Snitch

"One of the most important balls used in the game is the Golden Snitch, the smallest and fastest of all the balls used in the game among wizards and witches, the Golden Snitch."

Golden Snitch, or Snitch for short, is the fastest and smallest ball on a Quidditch match. It's known for being extremely hard to see and almost impossible to catch.

The team that catches the Snitch gains 150 points. Catching the Snitch also ends the match and it's the only way it can be ended.

It is the size of a walnut and it's always made of gold. The reason its color is yellow is because it's the hardest color for the human eye to notice, thus making it even more challenging to catch.

Thestrals

Description

Due to Thestrals' classification as XXXX, experienced wizards (or Hagrid) should try to avoid them. Breeding as well as hunting them may be discouraged or prohibited without Ministry consent; in fact, it is illegal in areas not protected against them. It is illegal by law to perform experiments on their Thestrals.

ask to travel to a specific location. These magical creatures can be found in various environments, and the forest is their natural habitat.

Mandrake

Description

When dug up, the root screams like a banshee when it is pulled from the ground. The scream of a mandrake is so loud that it will kill any person who hears it. However, a young child who screams will not be harmed by a person who hears it.

fig. 1

Mandrake's scream is very similar to (if not the same as) a banshee's scream, which is also a type of wailing. Their leaves can be used in various potions.

Dementors

Description

A Dementor is a creature of the Dark Arts. There are many ways to defend against them, but the most effective is the Patronus Charm. The Patronus Charm is a spell that creates a protective barrier around the caster, preventing Dementors from getting close. It is a powerful spell, and it is one of the most important spells in the wizarding world.

Although their numbers are small, they are very dangerous. They feed on the happiness and memories of their victims, leaving them in a state of despair. They are also known for their ability to cause madness. The Dementors are a constant threat to the wizarding world, and they are one of the most feared creatures in existence.

It was a dark night when the Dementors first appeared. They were seen in the grounds of Hogwarts, and they were causing a great deal of trouble. The school was in a state of panic, and the students were being kept in their dormitories. The Dementors were a real threat, and they were causing a great deal of trouble.

Because of the danger they pose, the Dementors are guarded by the Ministry of Magic. It is a very expensive and time-consuming task, but it is necessary to keep the wizarding world safe from these creatures.

Crucio

The Crucio is often used during the... of wizards. purposes, but

The pain caused by the Crucio is described as worse than "one thousand white hot knives, boring into the skin." This pain can cause permanent mental injury if exposed for prolonged time;

Presumably, such permanent effects are not uncommon if the victim is exposed to a particularly intense curse for a long period of time.

Directions

To successfully perform this curse, merely uttering the incantation is not enough. The wizard or witch must possess a deep desire to cause the victim pain.

Wingardium Leviosa

The Levitation Charm is one of the most powerful spells in the wizarding world. It is a charm that causes objects to levitate. It is one of the spells learnt by any young witch or wizard. With the charm, a wand or wizard's wand will fly through the air.

This levitation spell requires two specific body movements (a swish and flick), and correctly speaking the magic spell words: Wingardium Leviosa.

The Levitation Charm was first developed in the 17th century, and warlock Robert Hobbart is credited with its invention. On 16th October 1644, Hobbart performed the charm on a large crowd of people, among which was a young girl named Alice Warlock. Hobbart was not, to his surprise, a maiden. He was a public demon. Hobbart performed his own revolutionary charm on himself. He climbed onto the roof of his local church and, as he leapt and, having cast the spell, was left hovering in mid-air.
