

both... and...
either... or ...
neither... nor...

both... and...

- Not only this one but also the other

- They were hungry! They ate both the cake and the pie.

either ... or...

- One or the other of two, but not both.

- Her brother is either Paul or Tim. I'm not sure.

neither ... nor...

- Not this one and not the other.
- Used with an affirmative verb.

- They played neither football nor tennis.
They just read stories.

Let's practice:

- I want neither water nor soda. I'm not thirsty.
- You can choose: we can go either to the French restaurant or to the pizza place.
- I'm very sad. ~~Neither~~ Pat nor Andy came to the party.

- Both Chicago and New York are important American cities.
- Their new car is either black or red. I don't remember very well.
- Poor Charles. He broke both his left leg and his right arm in the accident.

