Norwegian Heart Baskets

If you have a heart, I want to let you know how much I love you and how much I care.

— Mrs. J. P. —

Norwegian heart baskets (hjertebasketer) are a tradition during Norway's Christmas season. It is to tell all those love-shaped baskets with goodies and treats, hang them around the house and give them to friends and family. The baskets are adorable and make perfect Valentine's Day baskets. Simply make your baskets, fill with sweet treats and give out as tributes to your friends and family.

Materials needed:

- Template (found on last page)
- 2 sheets of coordinating cardstock or scrapbook paper
- Glue

Directions:

1. Print template. For doubling, you may wish to print on cardstock.
2. Cut template out, making sure to cut on outside fold line.
3. Fold each template in half on middle fold line. While folded in half, cut on the 4 straight dotted lines, making sure to stop cutting at the end of the line (i.e., don't cut all the way to the end).
