Norwegian heart baskets (hjertebur) are a tradition during Norway's Christmas season. To make all these heart-shaped baskets with goodness and care, hang them around the house and give them to friends and family. The think they are adorable and make perfect Valentine's Day baskets! Simply make your baskets, fill with sweet treats and give out as tributes to your friends and family.

Materials needed:

- Templates (printed on last page)
- 2 sheets of coordinating card stock or scrapbook paper
- Glue

Directions:

1. Print templates. For doubling, you may wish to print on cardstock.
2. Cut templates out, making sure not to cut on middle fold line.
3. Fold each template in half on middle fold line. While folded in half, cut on the 4 straight dotted lines, making sure to stop cutting at the end of the line (i.e., don't cut all the way to the end).
