

The modal verbs are: can, could, may, might, must, ought to, will, would, shall, and should. They do not take -s in the third person singular. He can ride fast. They come before the subject in questions and are followed by 'not' in negations. "Could I leave now?" "I'm afraid you can't leave." The modal verbs are followed by an infinitive without to except for 'ought to'. She could leave early but she really ought to stay till the end. Each modal verb normally has more than one use. Shall I help you with the dishes? (offer) Shall we go out tonight? (suggestion)

- Certain verbs or expressions have virtually the same meaning as some modals. These are: need (= must), had better (= should), have to/have got to (= must), be able to (= can), used to (= would), etc. / have got to hurry to catch the bus. (= I must hurry.)
- We use modal verbs to express: ability, advice, criticism, logical assumptions, necessity, offers, obligation/duty, permission, possibility, probability, prohibition, requests or suggestions.
