'The Devil wears Prada' is a good comedy drama based on a novel by Lauren Weisberger.

The movie is set in the busy offices of a New York Publishing House and focuses on a college graduate who takes a job as an assistant at a top fashion magazine. She believes it is the first step towards becoming a serious journalist, but things don't turn out to be quite so simple. Her new boss is ruthless, bad and determined to make her life a living hell.

The acting in the film is nice. Anne Hathaway is convincing as the naive young assistant, but it's Meryl Streep that steals the show with a good performance as the bad boss. The plot can be a little boring at times but there are plenty of laughs to make up for that.

All in all, The Devil wears Prada is a good film and really funny. If you only see one film this year, this should be it!
