

What programme is it?

My favourite TV programme is

It airs every week and is presented by Alexander Vasiliev, Russia's leading fashion historian. It features grown-up people changing their style and transforming just in front of the audience. It is interesting to see what the guests look like when they choose fashionable clothes for themselves, and when the stylists dress them up, and how the guests react.

“Fashion Verdict”

