Белоброва Е.Д.

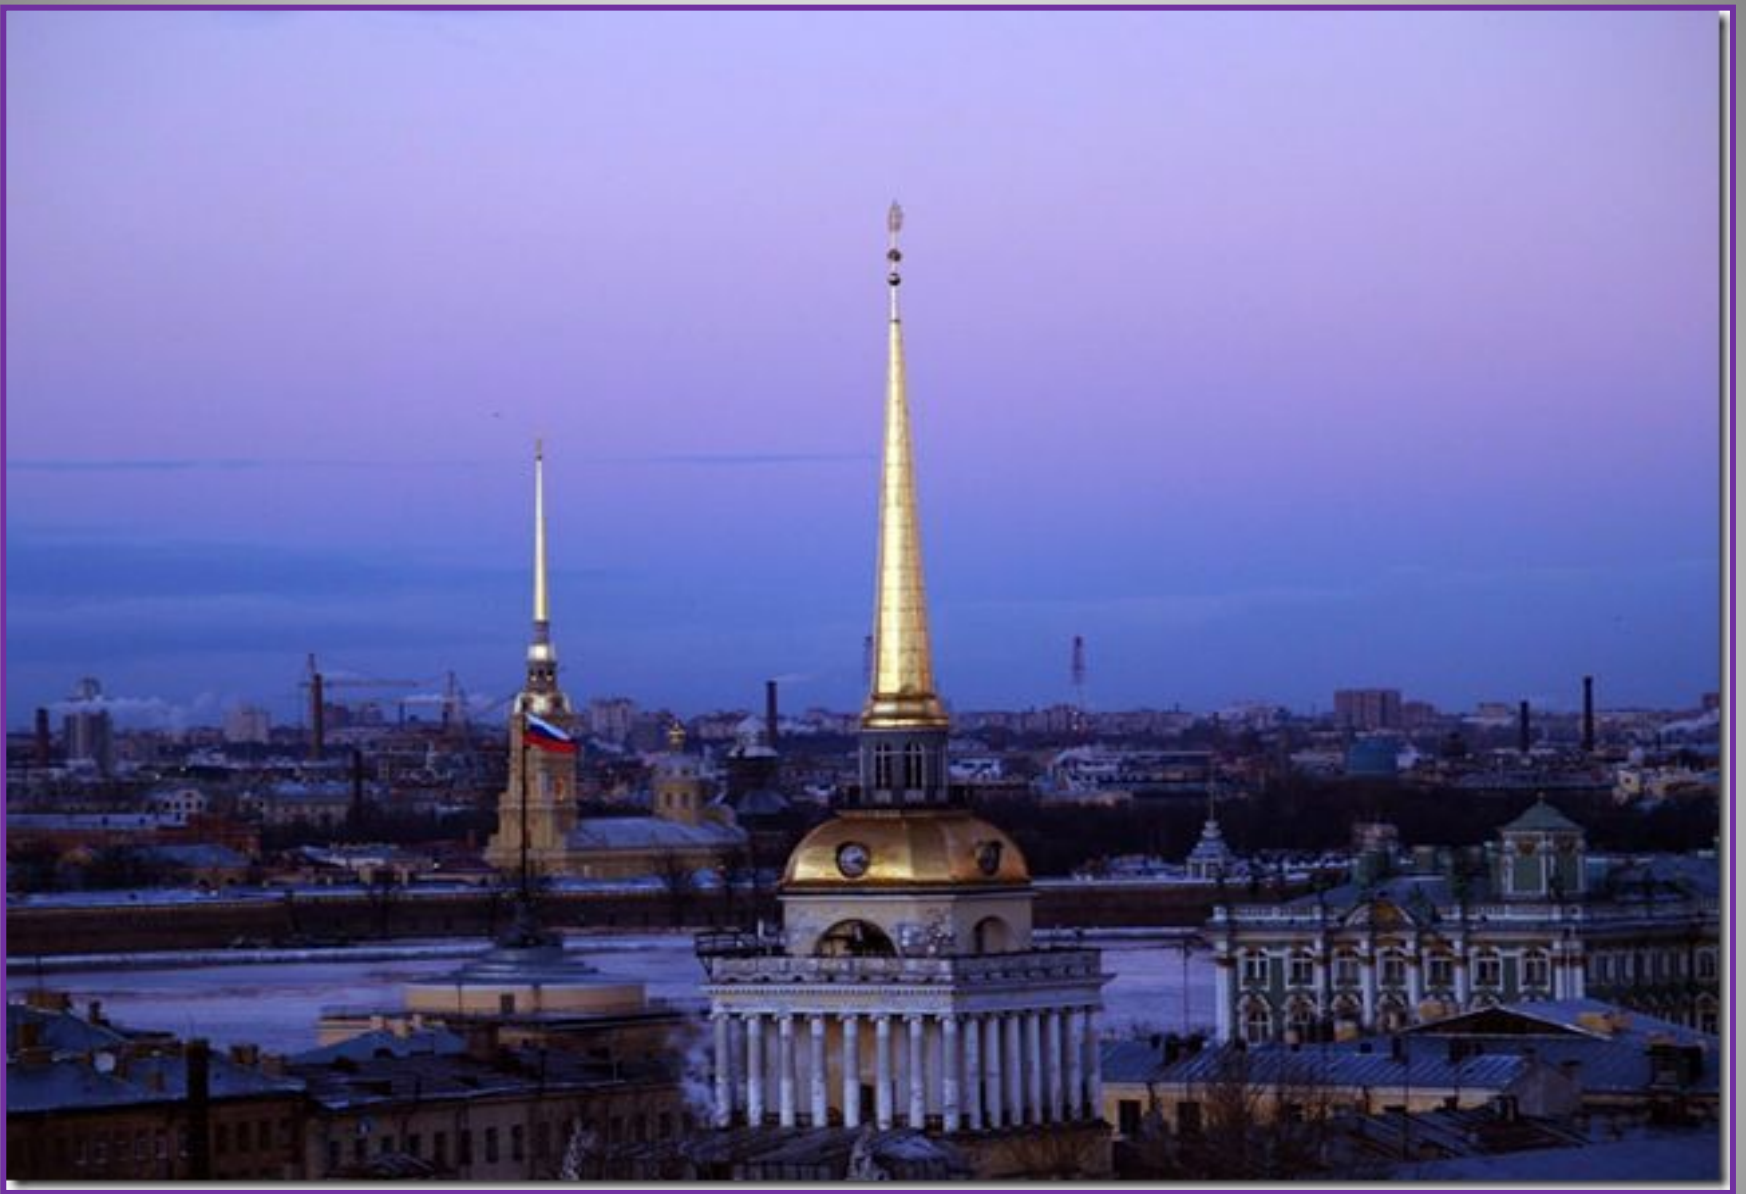

The present building was constructed after the design of the architect Andreyan Zakharov

The main façade is 407 meters wide.

In the centre of the façade there is a tower with an entrance arch.

The tower is adorned with a colonnade and crowned with a cupola and a gilded spire.

On both sides of the arch there are nymphs carrying the terrestrial and celestial spheres.

Two Geniuses of Glory are above the arch.

The colonnade circling the base of the spire is decorated with 28 statues.

Thy grandiose building consists of two U-shaped wings.
