

The background is a stylized, artistic map of the world. The colors are primarily shades of blue and white, with gold accents highlighting the continents. The map is rendered in a way that suggests depth and texture, with various shades of blue representing different geographical features or perhaps a specific data set. The gold highlights are scattered across the landmasses, adding a touch of elegance and contrast to the overall design.

Натюрморт часть 2

