The image displays two systems of musical notation for guitar, both in 4/4 time. The first system is labeled 'X3' and the second 'X1'. Each system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 4/4 time signature. The first measure of each system contains a single quarter note on the second line (D4). The second measure features a triplet of eighth notes: the first is on the second line (D4), the second is on the second space (E4), and the third is on the third line (F#4). The third measure consists of a single quarter note on the second space (E4). The fourth measure contains a triplet of eighth notes: the first is on the second space (E4), the second is on the second line (D4), and the third is on the first space (C4). In the 'X3' system, the notes in the second and fourth measures are marked with an 'x' above them, indicating they are fretted. In the 'X1' system, the notes in the second and fourth measures are marked with an 'x' below them, indicating they are fretted.

The image shows a musical score for a guitar part. It consists of three staves. The top staff is a six-line guitar staff with a treble clef. It contains a sequence of chords, each represented by a horizontal bar with 'x' marks indicating fretted strings. The first chord has two 'x' marks on the first and second lines, and the others have three 'x' marks on the first, second, and third lines. The middle staff is a five-line bass staff with a bass clef. It contains a sequence of notes: a dotted quarter note on the first line, followed by eighth notes on the second, third, and fourth lines, and a dotted quarter note on the first line. The bottom staff is a five-line bass staff with a bass clef, containing a sequence of notes: a dotted quarter note on the first line, followed by eighth notes on the second, third, and fourth lines, and a dotted quarter note on the first line. The notes in the bottom staff are beamed together in pairs. The dynamic marking f and the instruction Tight are written below the bottom staff.
