

The background is a stylized illustration of a forest. It features several tall, grey-brown tree trunks. The branches are dark brown and adorned with orange and white flowers. Numerous orange and white leaves are shown falling from the trees. A small, orange and white spotted bird is perched on a branch in the center. To the right, a grey bird is shown in flight, leaving a dashed line behind it. The overall color palette is muted, with greys, browns, oranges, and whites.
