

LEGOLAND WINDSOR

Legoland is a park dedicated to designer Lego, popular with children from all over the world. It is located near Windsor Castle (1 hour from London)

Here, all buildings, landscapes, vehicles built using LEGO-bricks ...

... Even unique layouts of British sights - London's Big Ben and St. Paul's Cathedral from LEGO created layouts of cities here everything is made of LEGO:

cars that you can drive boats that you can ride the helicopters, which can fly space station

castle with dragon and knight football field

the whole day is a circus program there is an amusement park toy railway

In the summer, presentations of new toys from LEGO are arranged - with laser shows and fireworks

The highest tower of LEGO cubes, resembling a ship's mast, was built in this park. Its height is 30.5 m

The tower is dedicated to the 50th anniversary of the LEGO cube, celebrated in 2008. The tower consists of 500 thousand cubes and is listed in the Guinness Book of Records.
