

PAST SIMPLE AND PAST CONTINUOUS

Picture description

REMEMBER!

- We use the PAST CONTINUOUS:
 - to describe an action in progress in the past.
 - to describe two or more simultaneous actions.
 - to describe an action that was in progress and was interrupted.

- We use the PAST SIMPLE:
 - to describe situations that finished in the past.
 - to describe past habits.
 - to describe one completed past action after another.
 - to describe an action that interrupted an action in progress.
