short course from jooheon

Shownu(Sohn Hyunwoo)

Position in the group: leader, lead dancer, vocalist

Sean, whose real name is Song Hyun, was born on June 18, 1992 in one of the northernmost areas of Seoul. He began his path to fame at JYP Entertainment, becoming an intern in 2008. Two years later, the guy moved to Starship Entertainment, where he trained for another four years.

In 2014, the guy became one of the twelve participants in the No Mercy survival show. Under the strict guidance of Starship Entertainment stars and trainers, the guys improved their skills and fought for a place in MONSTA X.

Having shown all his sides and colors, Sean was given the opportunity to become the leader of MONSTA X. And on May 14, 2015, the guys officially debuted with the single “Tresspass”, which finished fifth in the music charts. Pretty good for a debut single.

Shownu: There is no one on whom I can depend more than on my members. If there is something that makes me angry or sad, I always go to my members. This may sound childish, but when we face problems, we talk about it and acknowledge our mistakes

... When I saw how the RAIN-sonbenim sang, I realized that I wanted to be just like him, so I tried myself in an audition at JYP Ent., in which he worked at that time and started training there. After JYP Ent. I auditioned for Starship and there I performed the song Chris Brown - Run It! and Brian McKnight - Still.

... We are full of energy, and each of us is an individual.

Minhyuk: He has traits that I would like to possess: broad shoulders, long arms and large palms. When you look at his face you feel something bright, but at the same time courageous. This is the image that I would like for myself. And he dances great! The king of dancing!

... I think a long period of hard training was very difficult to overcome. However, such preparation helped me make my debut so successfully. Now I look back at that time, and try to maintain enthusiasm.

Wonho(Shin Hoseok)

- - Vocalist, dancer

As a child, he was engaged in swimming and played the piano. He came to the entertainment industry as an aljan model, he was also a model for 'BigPai' and 'BubbleStyle'. (Olcan - this is the name of people with a bright and attractive appearance). In 2012 he signed a contract with Starship Entertainment agency, from that moment the guy began an internship, dancing and vocal training. In 2014, he took part in the TV show "No Mercy", at which Starship Entertainment, together with Mnet, presented their 12 interns, including Wonho. The struggle began for a place in the men's hip-hop group, the participants performed weekly showing their skills in dancing and singing. Having passed the selection, Wonho takes 5th place, and is a member of the Monsta X group, becoming a full-fledged approved member.

- "Headbands / elastic bands are not just for girls, because there is no difference between genders. I can wear them and will do it," Wonho once expressed this on the radio, continuing his thought like this: "I think that Shownu very beautiful, and I also think that this adjective can be used not only for the female half of the population. " Remembering this, in this post I want to express my respect to that person who is beautiful both externally and internally, because he does not have such a vice as discrimination against races, genders, religions and orientations. About the latter, Wonho also said that if someone knows how to cook delicious ramen, then he doesn't care whether this girl is someone or a guy.

I think that we should take an example from our idol, who not only accepts everyone as they are, but is confidently ready to declare it.

- In November 2019, Wonho resigned from the MONSTA X group due to charges of marijuana use in the past (in 2013, but it surfaced in October 2019).

However, it has long been proven that these allegations were false, so we all hope that the child will return to the family, otherwise why live?

Lee Minhyuk

- - Vocalist
- Minhyuk: I love music since childhood. I think I know a lot of artists of that time. The first time I sang "I Will Give You Everything" in front of my classmates during our trip to high school, then I realized that I wanted to become a singer.
- ... This is the type of energy on the stage that only Monsta X can control.
- ... I had many obstacles, but participation in No.MERCY was the most difficult period.
- . Hyungwon: Looking at him, you can immediately say that he is very cute, cheerful, able to charm everyone with his smile. He also has a cool expression, large palms, a pleasant voice and good physique. Other members may not know, but he has a surprisingly muscular back

(I did not find almost any information for which I reproach the Internet so we are content with what is sorry)

Chae Hyungwon

- Dancer, vocalist

- Hyungwon: I enjoyed being the center of attention since childhood. I always wanted to sing and dance on stage. While I went to music school, I realized that I want to make music more and more, that I like it, and I learned songs, learned dances,
- performances. At the audition, I sang John Legend - All of Me and 2PM - ICan't. I also performed hip-hop and urban dances. Now I want to achieve my goal and achieve high success.
- ... You can see us from different angles: our strength on stage and our sweet side outside performances.
- ... I think the most difficult period was the days when I was a trainee, because my future was not clear then. Despite the fact that there were enough obstacles that caused the desire to quit everything, I think I am here precisely because I have overcome these difficulties.

- "You have a weak link - Hyungwon?" - Such a question was often asked by other artists during Jooheon during frank conversations, to which he gave a negative answer. Yes, sometimes it happens that we consider someone deprived of talent if he does not know the same as others in his environment. We all need to discard such a superficial discourse about someone else's personality, because there is no person who is not gifted. Using our Hyungwon as an example, I want to prove my point. This guy was a model before becoming part of the K-POP group; but, after going through tremendous trials of life and shows, he became a singer who also gorgeously dances; becoming interested in DJing, he simply learned this art and now performs at huge festivals of world scale; this handsome and in web drama managed to withdraw.

Yes, Hyungwon is given few lines due to the fact that his voice is weaker than the rest; but this is not a reason to think that he is just a visual group with a zero portion of talent; because he is stronger than you think

Lee Jooheon

- Chief rapper

Jooheon: I watched the performances of Michael Jackson and realized that I want to become a singer. At first I sang in the churches, then gradually began to dance and rap, with this and My musical activity began. The first song I performed in public was NAUL - Immense Jehovah. A cover of this song was my start.

... We are distinguished by mad energy.

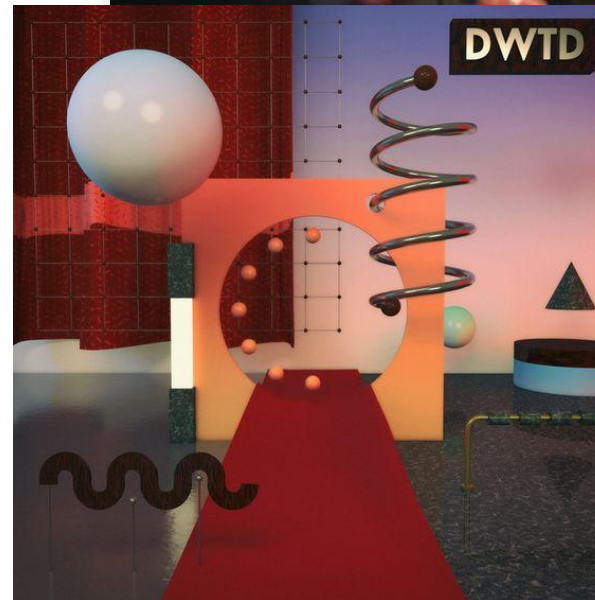

- ... It was during No.MERCY, when it was painful to watch the rest of the show leave. It was difficult to compete with those with whom I spent so much time. This was the most difficult.

- ... This was a time where I could think of myself. I learned that people can be very sharp. They read and listen to every song lyrics. I want to be careful, but not when I rap. I want to be sure when I rap, and polite when I'm out of it.

- Minhyuk: Jooheon snores during sleep, and if you tell him: "Stop snoring!", He will stop even if he is sleeping. We think this is very sweet. And Changkyun, which is maknae, can also say: "Yeah, stop snoring already," and it's very nice to watch. Then Jooheon really stops snoring (laughs). This is a lot of fun, so we record videos and watch them everywhere.

- Changkyun: I believe that he is able to break patterns. He looks like the wind: kind and cheerful, such personalities are multifaceted.

He has a solo mixtape with title track RED CARPET

Changkyun

- Rapper

Initially, he wanted to become a scientist, like his dad, tried to study hard at school and was going to go to high school with a special bias, but his studies tired him a little, then Changkyun's mother sent him to music school to relieve stress, so he began to show interest in music

... we are carefree and cheerful children. Each of us has our own personality.

... For me, the biggest obstacle was not some period in my life, but my “psychological attitude”, with which I had to fight every time.

Wonho: To begin with, he has a good voice and a cool rap. In addition, he easily captivates others, leaving a good impression of himself. It cannot be denied that his charm is natural, but he himself denies it. Sometimes he is very cool, and, at times, radiates charm, and if you show it to others, it does not matter, man or woman, he will capture their hearts. Changkyun refers to the type of people who will make every effort to what they can, without burdening others.

It also has two mixtapes with title tracks
Fly with me and Horizon(feat Elhae)

On May 27th, a new episode of “We Bare Bears” aired in which the animated MONSTA X appeared. The guys became the first K-Pop group to appear in the animated series, and their appearance became even more discussed after Daniel Chong admitted that he was inspired by this conversation with MONSTA X fans. The animation show is broadcast in approximately 200 countries and reaches a wide audience.

The boys also released a lot of English songs and clips to them.

- SOMEONE'S SOMEONE
- Magnetic
- Middle of the night
- Love U
- Who do you love?

I propose to see one of them :)

Thank you all for your attention)
