3. СТРУКТУРА ЦИКЛА УРОКОВ

Организация учебного процесса при коммуникативном обучении носит циклический характер. Это означает, что процесс обучения разбит на циклы, т. е. на определённые отрезки, включаю

Поскольку в каждом из циклов у объектов обучения (определённые киноязычной культуры), цикличность учебного процесса.

В каждом цикле содержатся цели — развивающие и воспитательные. Но воспитание осуществляется через цементирующим началом для выделения аспект при соблюдении целостности сод

В основу построения циклов положено предполагает взаимосвязанное обучение. Это означает, что отобранный речевой материал в говорении, и в письме. Однако доминирующим является говорение.

Цикл уроков для обучения говорению овладения материалом: этап формирования навыков, этап развития умения

Каждая доза материала в рамках цикла. Таким образом, при переходе от цикла к следующему уровню общее умение владеть д

Первый этап охватывает два-три урока одного лексического и одного-двух грамматического этапа — формирование лексического говорения.

Предъявление нового материала зрительного образа со звуковым. Зрительное проговаривание читаемого, а также со стороны благодаря имитации обеспечивает речезрительный синтез. Формирование навыков говорения осуществляется в действии, как поиск, выбор, комбиниро

Второй этап охватывает четверть цикла. преследует цель совершенствования направленного и управляемого комбинирования материала, усвоенного ранее. Совершенствуется на разговорных текстах аудитивно. Здесь возможны варианты: либо один и тот же текст и зрительно задачами. Разговорные тексты, исп речевых навыков, выполняют несколько функций: служат стимулом к высказыванию, являются образцом и содержательной базой для построения высказываний учащихся, а также создают условия, позволяющие совершенствовать речевые навыки.

Чаще всего разговорные тексты построены на аутентичных высказываниях английских школьников и отражают их самые различные точки зрения на предмет обсуждения.

Сопутствующей задачей на уроке совершенствования речевых навыков служит развитие умения читать или аудировать. Поскольку чтение и аудирование как рецептивные виды деятельности требуют усвоения большого количества слов, этот этап вносит свою лепту (хотя и небольшую) в расширение рецептивного словаря учащихся за счёт включения в каждый текст по два — четыре незнакомых слова, которые не мешают общему пониманию содержания (а главное, смысла текста). Значение этих слов может быть понято по догадке. Автоматизации эти слова не подлежат.

Третий этап обеспечивает развитие умения общаться в целом и охватывает уроки 5—7. Работа на данном этапе характеризуется либо наличием разного вида содержательных или смысловых опор, либо их отсутствием, а также более высоким уровнем сложности речевых задач, большей новизной ситуаций, большим охватом привлекаемого материала. На уроке 5 происходит развитие диалогической формы общения, на уроке 6 — развитие монологической формы общения, на уроке 7 учащиеся работают над каким-либо собственным проектом.

Урок по развитию умения читать не имеет строго фиксированного места в структуре цикла. Его место зависит от логики развития содержания цикла. Для ориентации в учебнике имеется сноска: "Next lesson is a reading lesson".

Заключает цикл раздел "Test yourself", в котором даны задания на определение сформированности речевых навыков и умений, а также развития умений контроля и самоконтроля.

Цикл уроков для обучения говорению базируется на трёх этапах овладения материалом: этап формирования навыков, этап совершенствования навыков, этап развития умения.

- Первый этап охватывает два-три урока цикла. Каждый цикл состоит из одного лексического и одного-двух грамматических уроков. Главная задача первого этапа — формирование лексических и грамматических навыков говорения.
- Предъявление нового материала происходит на основе сочетания зрительного образа со слуховым. Зрительное восприятие и внутреннее проговаривание читаемого, а также соотнесение формальной и смысловой сторон благодаря имитации обеспечивает слухоречедвигательный и речезрительный синтез. Формирование грамматических и лексических навыков говорения осуществляется в упражнениях, включающих такие действия, как поиск, выбор, комбинирование, трансформация.

● Второй этап охватывает четвёртый урок каждого цикла, который преследует цель совершенствования речевых навыков на основе целенаправленного и управляемого комбинирования и трансформации материала, усвоенного ранее. Совершенствование речевых навыков осуществляется на разговорных текстах, предъявляемых зрительно или аудитивно. Здесь возможны варианты: один текст зрительно, другой на слух, либо один и тот же текст и зрительно, и на слух, но с разными речевыми задачами. Разговорные тексты, используемые для совершенствования речевых навыков, выполняют несколько функций: служат стимулом к высказыванию, являются образцом и содержательной базой для построения высказываний учащихся, а также создают условия, позволяющие совершенствовать речевые навыки.

Lesson 1 What are your job ideas?

1. Vocabulary. After eleven years of compulsory education, British children choose their next step. Layla is a sixth-form college student.

1) Has Layla made her decision about her future career yet? Use the Word Box to learn the meaning of the highlighted words.

I am personally very interested in a career in teaching or nursing. My parents think I am a caring person with good communication skills. Since my childhood I have wanted to be either a nursery school or primary school teacher. These careers require further study after Year 11. It is very important to think in advance what skills you need. I am taking A levels in English, drama and IT* at college. I also take part in the college events — this is something positive that I can write in my CV* together with my work experience. I helped in both a nursery and a primary school. I thought it would allow me to develop both my key skills and my personal qualities. I asked the people who I worked with what qualifications they had done. They told me about positive and negative aspects of the job of a teacher and what they liked about it. It is hard work but it allows you to feel personal achievement, to feel respect, besides the salary and the working conditions are good. I liked to belong to a team and my work has helped me to improve my confidence and to get the skills that I need for higher education or employment. It was valuable experience. Now I plan to go on to higher education after college. But if I decide to change my career in the future, I am certain that neither my skills nor experience will be useless to me.

communication [kəˈmjʊnɪˈkeɪʃn] — общение

Lesson 2 Have you made your decision yet?

1. Lisa is unsure about which subjects she needs for her future career as a solicitor.* People around give her recommendations.

1) What recommendations has Lisa got?

It's really difficult to decide what subjects to take when I don't know what job I want in the future.

Lisa, choose subjects you enjoy and don't be in a hurry to make your final decision.

Study different subjects which suit any new career ideas.

3) What changes take place in a sentence when recommendations are reported? Read the rule and check.

grammar in focus

Reported speech (orders/recommendations)
 Косвенная речь (приказания/просьбы в повелительном наклонении)

При переходе в косвенную речь побудительных предложений сказуемое в повелительном наклонении заменяется инфинитивом. Отрицательная форма сказуемого в повелительном наклонении заменяется инфинитивом с частицей not. Косвенная речь вводится глаголами advise, ask (попросить), warn (предупредить), tell и др. За таким глаголом следует существительное или местоимение в объектном падеже, обозначающее лицо, к которому относится просьба.

"Think about your future, Luke."
 The parents advised Luke to think about his future.
 "Don't forget about your future."
 The mother tells him not to forget about his future.

4 Are there traditionally men's and women's jobs?

1. Eleven-year-old Mark from the book The Client by John Grisham* needed a lawyer. Reggie Love became his lawyer. One day Mark was waiting for Reggie in her office and having a talk with her secretary Clint.

1) What did Mark learn about the work of a secretary? Did Mark like this job? (reading for the main idea)

At eleven, Mark sat down at Clint's desk and looked at the dictating machine. Reggie had a client and they needed to plan strategy for an hour. Clint typed¹ on long paper and took the phone every five minutes.

Mark got bored and asked, (0) "How did you become a secretary?"

Clint turned and smiled at him. "It was an accident."²

(1) ...

"No. I wanted to build swimming pools."

"What happened?"

"I don't know. I almost failed my exams in high school, then went to college, then went to law school."

(2) ...

"No. I failed the exams in law school, and Reggie gave me a job. It's fun, most of the time."

(3) ...

"It's a long story. We were friends in law school. We've been friends for a long time. She'll probably³ tell you about it when you meet Momma Love, Reggie's mother. They live together, and she loves to cook for the kids Reggie represents. She makes all kinds of tasty Italian food. Everyone loves it. Reggie takes most of her clients home, especially the younger ones."

The phone rang. Clint took the message and returned to his work. Mark watched carefully.

(4) ...

The typing stopped, and he slowly turned and looked at Mark. He smiled, and said, "In high school. I had this teacher who was like a sergeant. We hated her, but she made us learn. Can you type?"

"A little. I've had three years of computer at school."

Clint pointed to his Apple.* "We've got all sorts of computers around here."

Mark looked at it, but was not impressed. Everybody had computers.

Lesson 6 Should teenagers work while they are in school?

1. Is it a good idea for teenagers to take part-time jobs while still in school?

1) Are Kate's and David's opinions on taking part-time jobs similar or different? (listening for the main idea)

2) What are the advantages of a part-time job? What are the disadvantages? What do Kate and David say?

Some adults ask if schoolchildren should have jobs. I say yes, they should. Some people worry that teens with after-school jobs will not find time for homework. Actually, having a job helps teens to organise their time. The biggest reason why teens should be allowed to work is because it is a good way of earning money. You value things more if you are financially responsible for them.

3) Which of these arguments do Kate and David give to support their points of view?

to earn money

to save money for college to get practical experience to get necessary skills to have a sense of independence to develop time management skills to develop useful skills which will be required later to leave little time for studying to help to get into college to take responsibility (for)

to be valuable when writing a CV

4) Pair work. Which arguments do you agree with? Which ones do you disagree with?

Giving reasons

On the one hand, ... • On the other hand, ...

Firstly, ... • Secondly, ... • Finally, ... • Besides, ...

Moreover, ... • Because of ... • Since ...

For this reason ... • As a result, ... • However, ...

So, ... • ... which leads to ...

Counter-arguments¹

Even so, ...

Even if that is so, ...

That may be so, but ...

5) What is your opinion about working while studying?

2. In your culture. Children in Russia can also have a part-time job.

1) If you were choosing a part-time job, which one would you choose? Why?

The kind of jobs teenagers can do in Russia

• delivering newspapers

• working in an office

• delivering documents

• repairing the school

• tidying the territory

• working in a shop

• working in a café

2) What are you going to do during your summer holidays?

Are you going to work? Why? Why not?

3) Do you work part-time? Why? Why not? What do you like about working part-time?

Lesson 7 Do you work during your summer holidays?

1. Emma Barton prefers to get work experience while studying at school. She writes about her experience in her letters.

1) Look at three Emma's letters on pp. 130–132 and decide which type each of them belongs to.

• a CV

• a letter of application

• a personal letter

A.

Dear Maria,

Thanks for your letter. I'm glad to hear that everything is going well. I'm sorry I haven't written for so long but I've been really busy looking out for a summer job.

You asked me about my plans for summer holidays. Well, now I'm working in a camp shop. I'm glad that I've got this job, because I've always wanted to be in a 'people' type of job. I like meeting new people, helping and talking to them. I think that working at the camp helps me to learn how to be responsible for a lot of different things. If people complain, I know how to deal with them. I'm getting lots of valuable practical experience that may be useful for the future. As you know, I want to go on to study business and law at university. One of my favourite parts of working is belonging to a team and meeting people from lots of different places. I'm usually at work from about 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. and I check people in¹ and serve holidaymakers. I enjoy working at the camp — everyone knows who I am and I know them!

Do you work during the holiday season? Will this job help you in your future career? Are summer jobs popular with teenagers in your country?

Write back soon.

Love,

Emma

8 What is a gap year for?

1. Alex and Liza are talking about their choices after finishing compulsory education.

1) What are their choices?

Liza

Liza: Going to university is something I have always expected to do and something I have always wanted to do. I'm sure getting good qualifications is important for the future career not to mention¹ the fact that if you have finished a course at university you'll probably get a better job. And what is your choice?

Alex: That's a difficult question. I haven't made up my mind what I want to do when I leave school. I think I need a break to do something different. That's why I choose a gap year.* I want to travel, earn money and get skills and life experience.

Liza: Possibly, but do you ignore the idea of applying to college?

Alex: No, but first I want to find out what is right for me before going on to higher education.

Alex

2) Which of the following questions could Liza ask? Which of them could Alex ask?

Are you going to apply to university?

Are you going to stay at home or go abroad?

Are you going to work during the gap year?

Do you think you have chosen the right options?

Do you want to keep your options open?²

Grammar in Focus

The Past Progressive and the Past Simple Tenses

Прошедшее длительное время и прошедшее простое время

Когда мы говорим о действии, происходившем в определённый момент в прошлом (Past Progressive), этот момент может быть выражен другим (как правило, более коротким) действием в прошлом (Past Simple).

При этом Past Progressive употребляется для незавершённого действия, а Past Simple для завершённого действия:

I came to Trafalgar Square. People were dancing.

Past Progressive может употребляться как в главном, так и в придаточном предложении:

When I came to Trafalgar Square, people were dancing there. — Когда я пришёл, люди танцевали.

I came to Trafalgar Square while/when people were dancing there. — Я пришёл на площадь, в то время как/когда люди танцевали.

What is the perfect Christmas tree?

5. Christmas trees decorate all houses at Christmas.

1) Using a dictionary. The story's name is The Perfect Tree.

What does the word 'perfect' mean here? Read the dictionary article and choose.

perfect ['pɜːfɪkt]

1) совершенный, безупречный; 2) точный, полный; 3) хорошо подготовленный

2) Read the story to check. (reading for the main idea)

The Perfect Tree

by Debra W. Hingley

Finally, that day came to buy the perfect Christmas tree. I got into my car to find the Christmas tree. (1) _____ I began to think what stories the trees might tell. I got out of my car and began to walk around, but I wasn't choosing that perfect tree.

I saw a man near me, he was looking at a branch¹ on a tree and laughing. The branch was longer than the others. I stopped to listen to what he was saying, "Look at this tree! It is only good for the fire." I looked at the tree and said, "But did you think that maybe that branch was special? A bird might sit on it." The man looked at me, small tears² were in his eyes. He smiled and said, "You know you are right, it is the perfect Christmas tree. It will be nice to see my daughter's smile when she runs to the tree on Christmas morning. (2) _____ " I smiled and went on my way.

Then I saw a mother with her children. (3) _____ They were laughing at the strange³ little tree, too. I stopped and asked them, "What is funny about this little tree?" One of the boys answered with a laugh, "Two trees have wrapped around each other." I looked at his mother and said, "Maybe one of the trees was very small, and the other tree had to help his brother." The little boys were looking at the tree. Their mother then turned to me and said, "This tree is beautiful. It is just like my sons. (4) _____ When one falls⁴ down, the other catches him." And she bought that tree.

During the Christmas holiday, when we are decorating our trees, think about all the stories that these trees may tell because they are all perfect in nature's eyes.

3) Choose the best answers to the following questions. (reading for detail) Read the Learning to Learn note on p. 17 first.

- When did the author see the man?
 - While she was sitting in the car.
 - While she was walking around.
 - While she was choosing a tree.

1) What traditions are Jay and Maria talking about? (listening for specific information)

2) Find out:

- how the children ask about what holidays they like;
- how they talk about what holidays they like;
- how they talk about last Christmas.

— What holiday is your number one holiday?
 — I prefer¹ Christmas. I think in many families Christmas is the most important holiday.
 — Christmas is my favourite, too. Second best I like New Year because all the family gather together.

— Yes, perhaps Christmas and New Year are at the most beautiful time of the year. Besides, we don't go to school for two weeks because we have holidays.

— I like it because there are a lot of Christmas traditions. And people call Christmas a time of magic.

— Yes, it's true. Last year when my friends and I were going from house to house and singing Christmas carols*, we saw a real Father Christmas! He was coming out of the house with a bag of presents.

— And while I was eating Christmas pudding, I found a coin.
