

What are the teens' problems?

Teens' problems Module 4G

- Do you have any problems?
  - What are they?
  - Who helps you to solve your problems?
-
- Task1. Make a list of possible teens' problems. Write them in your copybooks. Discuss in class.

list of possible teens' problems

If you...

- ❑ don't know how to spend free time
- ❑ are unsure how to choose a profession
- ❑ have bad relationships with parents
- ❑ have fear of loneliness
- ❑ have bad behaviour
- ❑ have bad marks
- ❑ have not enough pocket money

you should/could ... .

- ❑ work hard and do homework everyday
- ❑ learn how to save money
- ❑ visit parties and make new friends
- ❑ ask your parents to help you
- ❑ have a talk with your parents
- ❑ make a list of activities you like to do
- ❑ ask a psychologist to give you a good advice

Problems and possible solutions

- Task 2 □ Student's Book ex. 1 p. 72
- choose the problem and match it with possible solution. Work in pairs.

- example: have conflicts with parents
- If you have conflicts with your parents you should visit/consult a psychologist.

Developing listening skills

- Task 3 □ St's B ex 3 p 72. Listen and complete the table. Listen 2 times.
- Work Individually.
- Discuss with the teacher
- Task 4 □ WB ex 1, ex 2 p. 39 (list of the words) □ H/A

Developing reading skills

3 Read and name the children's problems:

* Kate: My mum is getting me down about my homework. She always checks the fulfillment of my homework. She makes me do my homework in advance. That's why I have no free time at all. I'm under much strain.

strain.

* Ben: I've found a job on Saturdays because we aren't very rich. I think I must help my mom. But my friends have forgotten about me. They laugh at me and my job. I feel very lonely. What can I do?

Developing reading skills

* Andrew: My sister is very strange. She is very pessimistic. She dislikes everything. Sometimes she is very angry and cruel. She beats me sometimes and I'm afraid of her. I don't understand her. Can you help me?

* Tina: I have three little sisters I my family. My parents make me take care of them all the time. It's very difficult to feed them and to make them sleep. I'm awfully tired every day. I can't think about my homework because I'm too tired.

Final task: Writing (40-50 words)

choose a problem given and write the text according to the examples * previous slide .

Send it to your teacher till 12-00 11/05 in eljur.

- too much homework
- lack of free time
- haveing nobody to talk
- unfair punishment
- having nobody to rely on
- too many responsibilities at home
- lack of friends
- dependence on parents

Criteria

- Content 2 ( a problem with explanation.)
  - Grammar 3
  - Vocabulary 3
  - Spelling 2
-

- 10-9
- 8-7
- 6