Welcome to Daily ESL!

One of the best ways to improve communication skills is to become familiar with the language by reading, building vocabulary, and discussing what you study in daily conversations. Too often, ESL/EFL students spend time reading about topics that they normally wouldn't use in daily conversation. This site presents short conversation starters or readings that you can study and then try to apply in everyday situations

Before anything else, be sure to read the page, Using This Site, to understand the purpose of these materials and how to best use them. The table below outlines current and future topics. Those with links are now available. Write me if you have an idea for a new reading topic.

http://www.ello.org

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL www.ello.org. The website has a dark blue header with the 'ello' logo in colorful letters. Below the header is a navigation bar with links for 'Lessons', 'Videos', and 'Contact'. The main content area is divided into several sections:

- This Week: Features a video thumbnail of a young boy eating a chocolate ice cream sundae. Below the image, it says 'Views 1424: Foods We Hate!' with flags for the UK and Denmark, and 'Views 1423: Comfort Food!'. A short description follows: 'Katie and Gilda talk about foods that make them happy.'
- English Listening Lesson Library Online: A text-based section with the heading 'Learn English with our free audio/video lessons!' and links for 'levels / media type / country - accent / products'.
- Special Offer: A promotional banner showing a woman wearing headphones and listening to music. The text reads 'Over 1,500 Lessons just $59'.
- Free Lesson Downloads: A section with the heading 'Free Lesson Downloads' and a sub-heading 'Sep 22 - Rent vs Own!'. It includes a thumbnail of a lesson page with a QR code.

At the bottom of the browser window, there is a Windows taskbar with various application icons and system tray icons. The system tray shows the date '25.09.2016' and time '22:57'.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <http://www.bbc.com/news>. The browser's address bar and tabs are visible at the top. The BBC News homepage features a red navigation bar with the BBC logo, a 'Sign in' button, and menu items for News, Sport, Weather, Shop, Earth, Travel, and More. A search bar is located on the right. Below the navigation bar, the word 'NEWS' is displayed in large white letters on a red background. A secondary navigation bar includes links for Home, Video, World, UK, Business, Tech, Science, Magazine, Entertainment & Arts, Health, World News TV, and More. The main content area is dominated by a large article titled 'US accuses Russia of Aleppo 'barbarism'' in blue text. The article's sub-headline reads: 'The US ambassador to the UN accuses Russia of "barbarism" over the bombing of the Syrian city of Aleppo.' It includes a timestamp of '2 hours ago' and a category tag 'Middle East'. Below the sub-headline are three video thumbnails: 'US denounces Russian 'barbarism'', 'Russia envoy: Syria peace 'impossible'', and 'Why Assad wants to take Aleppo'. A large image shows a yellow excavator working on the rubble of a destroyed building in Aleppo. To the right of the main article is a 'Watch/Listen' section with a 'LIVE World Service radio' button and a video player showing a woman speaking at a 'UNITED STATES' podium. Below the video player is the headline 'US accuses Russia of 'barbarism' in Syria'. At the bottom of the page, there are more article thumbnails, including one titled 'Jordan writer in blasphemy case' and another 'No royal high five for Canadian PM Trudeau'. The Windows taskbar is visible at the very bottom, showing the system tray with the time 23:28 and date 25.09.2016.
