

CANADA

Canada

Canada

The population: 26 mln people

The total area: 9976 sq. kms

The capital: Ottawa

The places of interest of country:

the Rockies, the Great Lakes, the Niagara Falls, Montreal, Toronto, Quebec, Vancouver, Baffin Land, the St. Lawrence Seaway, the Lake District, Hudson Bay, Winnipeg, the St. Lawrence Valley, etc.

The capital of Canada is Ottawa

Ottawa is the national capital and an emerging centre of high-technology research. Its population is about 880,000 people.

Scotiabank Place

National Gallery

Business Part

The Capital of Canada

- Ottawa is the capital of Canada. One third of its people are French-speaking. Ottawa is the capital of Canada and is located on the banks of the Ottawa, Rideau and Gatineau rivers. Canada's fourth-largest city is a complementary blend of urban and rural lifestyles, old and new neighborhoods, culture and heritage, business and government. Ottawa also has a high standard of living reflected in a multitude of accessible services, vibrant entertainment, exciting recreational activities, and thriving businesses.

Parliamentary complex of Ottawa

Powerful symbol known Canadian city of Ottawa - uniquely beautiful parliamentary complex. Interestingly, the hill on which the buildings in the complex, located in the old part of the city, where it joins the Ottawa River and the Rideau. Although the completion of part of the parliamentary complex was completed already in the thirties of the twentieth century, many of the buildings built in the Gothic style. Among the buildings can be identified so-called Tower of the World, which can be seen from different points of the city. The tower is 96 meters. Inside the tower you can see the Book of Remembrance in the Second World War. Ottawa is also famous carillon, where you can play a variety of products.

Parliament-Ottawa

Ottawa

Ottawa became capital of Canada in 1857. It is extremely silent, clean and quiet city even to the Canadian measures

Ottawa

UNIVERSITY OF OTTAWA

Embassy of the Republic of Yemen, Ottawa

Discovering the beautiful city of Ottawa

THE END
THANK YOU for YOUR ATTENTION