37 John stays in hospital

A

Look at the picture and read the story.

Last December it was very cold and it snowed a lot. One Saturday, John was playing with his sledge on the hill near his house with a group of friends. Suddenly, he fell and broke his leg. His friends ran to tell his mother. An ambulance came and took John to hospital.

John had to stay in hospital. The nurses and the other children in the hospital were very friendly and at first he was happy because he didn't have to go to school. He laughed at all of his friends. They had to do a lot of homework and exams. He enjoyed listening to music and watching his favourite television programmes all day.

But then the Christmas holidays started. John was still in hospital. He was tired of watching television and of hearing his CDs and he wanted to go home. 'This is horrible,' he thought. He felt sad so he started to cry.

But then a man came to his room with a bag of presents and a Christmas tree. John knew him from the television. He was a famous sports star who was visiting all the ill children. And the man was not the only person who came that day. All the students from his class came to visit him. And two of his teachers brought him the best present – some Maths homework!
